ANOTHER TURKISH FORCE SURRENDERS

SERBS COMPEL THEM TO HOIST WHITE FLAG

Bulgarians Now Within a Few Miles of Capital—Cholera Raging

Belgrade, Nov. 15.—Another Turkish force hoisted the white flag and surrendered to the Serbian cavalry near Monastir yesterday. The Serbians attacked the Ottoman troops at Debrinara, about five miles to the northeast of Monastir, and in spite of a gallant Turkish advance posts from their strongly-entrenched positions.

The Turks retreated and were pursued as far as the village of Morabi, close to Monastir, by the Serbians, who surrounded them there and poured in such a heavy fire that the Turkish officers in command decided it was useless to continue fighting and ordered his men to throw down their arms.

The advance of the Serbian army has been temporarily stopped by floods.

Turkish Side of Story.

Constantinople, Nov. 14.—The Turkish naval gunners are doing great execution. The Bulgarian troops attacking the Tchatalja fortifications, according to a report from the commander of the Turkish cruiser Hamidieh.

The squadron lying off Bogados, on the coast of the Sea of Marmora, he said, found the range at from 8,000 to 8,500 yards and poured such a hail of shells into the Bulgarian ranks that the besiegers were forced to retire from their positions and withdraw behind the heights. They suffered great losses.

Servians Surround Monastir.

Athens, Nov. 15.—The Greek army, commanded by Crown Prince Constantine, left Salonica to-day and is proceeding to Monastir. The Serbian troops have succeeded in practically surrounding that city, where it is believed a large Turkish force is concentrated.

Almost Before Constantinople.

Constantinople, Nov. 15.—Bulgarian troops have reached the vicinity of Kilios, on the Black Sea coast, at the entrance to the Bosphorus, and within a few miles of the capital. The men belonging to the Turkish lifeboat station were left.

London, Nov. 15.—The announcement that the Bulgarians had reached the vicinity of Kilios lifts a corner of the veil which has been baffling observers for some days regarding their movements and shows that they have managed to creep around what is known as the forest of Belgrade, on the outskirts of Constantinople. They are now in close proximity to Therapia, the summer resort of the residents of Constantinople. From Therapia, a good road leads to within a few miles of Kilios. There is a strongly-defended fort at Kilios, but this was constructed to defend the place from attack by sea and may be open to assault on the land side.

Kilios is only three miles to the west of Cape Rumeli, at the Black Sea entrance to the Bosphorus, about six miles north of Therapia.

The dash of the Bulgarian troops seems to demonstrate that General Savoff, the Bulgarian commander-in-chief, is not wholly depending on a frontal attack on the line of fortifications at Tchatalja. If a strong Bulgarian force is already at Kilios, on the flank of the Turkish army, the fate of the Ottoman troops cannot, in military opinion, remain long in doubt, if the Bulgarian troops decide to enter Constantinople before a definite armistice is agreed to.

That an early peace is assured is accepted as a foregone conclusion, but whether it will be brought about before or after the surrender of Constantinople is probably known only to King Ferdinand of Bulgaria and his advisors.

Six Thousand Cholera Cases.

Constantinople, Nov. 15.—The cholera epidemic among the Turkish troops holding the line of fortifications at Tchatalja, in front of Constantinople, is rapidly becoming worse. More than 500 cases are reported daily and the total number already exceeds 6,000. Whatever hopes the Turks may have had of maintaining the line of defence at Tchatalja have been dissipated by the outbreak. An eye witness declares he saw 253 corpses buried in one very shallow trench at Hademkeul, the headquarters of the Turkish commander-in-chief, on Thursday. The bodies were dragged to the trenches on hooks.

While cholera is undermining the Turkish defenses, it also constitutes a most formidable opponent to the Bulgarian advance and it is generally believed here that the outbreak has disposed of the question of even a temporary occupation of Constantinople by the Bulgarian troops. It is not thought likely that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria will risk the lives of the soldiers in this way if he can avoid it. It is stated on good authority that cholera has already appeared among the Bulgarian troops. The Bulgarian army on Sunday last occupied the town of Derios, at the Black Sea end of the Tchatalja line, and thus controls the water supply of Constantinople. This, however, has not yet been interfered with.

The apathy and sullen resignation with which the Turks face the series of overwhelming disasters deserves comment. It is true, the severe application of martial law prevents the public expression of any criticism or resentment. The great mass of Moslems, however, are inclined to bow to the inevitable and to accept without violent opposition what they regard as the dictates of fate.

CANADIANS HOMEWARD BOUND.

London, Nov. 15.—The following Canadians left England to-day by the liner Empress of Ireland en route for Canada: Mrs. George Cassidy, Vancouver; Leslie Drake, William Gladstone, Wm. David Law, Montreal; J. D. Saffell, Winnipeg; Robert Harris, Halifax.

TORONTONIANS SUCCESSFUL.

London, Nov. 15.—M. J. Huffer and R. F. Scott, of Toronto, have been admitted to membership in the Royal College of Surgeons.

DYNAMITING OF LOS ANGELES TIMES

M'NAMARA'S PART IN THE CONSPIRACY

Witness Testifies as to Delivery of Powder Seven Days Before Explosion

Indianapolis, Nov. 15.—James B. McNamara's purchase of 500 pounds of nitro-gelatin with part of which, he blew up the Los Angeles Times building was described at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial to-day by George H. Phillips, assistant superintendent of a powder company. Phillips testified that on September 23, 1910, seven days before the Los Angeles explosion, he delivered to three men at the powder company's wharf at Oakland ten cases of the explosive, each case weighing fifty pounds. One of the men, said the witness, was McNamara, another man, "with a bad left eye," and the third "looked like a Mexican."

Phillips, who said the men loaded the explosives in the launch Peerless and left, identified various receipts and bills and wrappers from off the explosives which had been exhibited before the Los Angeles grand jury. The witness said nine cases of the nitro-gelatin afterwards were recovered by the San Francisco police.

Orlie E. McManigal's testimony was interrupted to-day to enable the government to question other witnesses. More than 100 witnesses, including 30 from the Pacific Coast, were in waiting.

In his testimony so far McManigal has named 17 of the 45 men now on trial for alleged illegal shipment of explosives as having assisted him in causing explosions, or as having been represented to him as knowing about them.

William Behm, Toledo, Ohio, and uncle of McManigal, testified that when he lived at Bloomville, Ohio, in June, 1907, his nephew appeared and purchased dynamite, fuses and caps. McManigal previously had testified that Herbert S. Hockin sent him to Bloomville for explosives, thus starting him in his dynamiting business. The witness said he later in Toledo saw McManigal, who, according to his own testimony, stopped off there on dynamiting trips.

"Once or twice he told me he was on his way to blow up a non-union job. I told him he ought not to do it, for he might be hurt," said the witness. "At another time in response to a letter, I shipped him to Chicago 400 feet of fuse packed in a box with eggs and vegetables."

Behm, a relative of whom was a witness at the trial of Clarence S. Darrow at Los Angeles, was asked whether he had been a witness at Los Angeles.

"I was subpoenaed but I did not appear," he said.

FINANCIAL SITUATION IN THE DOMINION

London Newspapers Comment on Speech of Manager of Bank of Montreal

London, Nov. 15.—To-day's papers give considerable prominence to the address of F. Williams Taylor, London manager of the Bank of Montreal, yesterday at the Royal Colonial Institute on Canadian finances.

The Standard says: "It is evident that, reading between the lines, Mr. Taylor felt that while he had a good case for maintaining that in the aggregate Canada had under-borrowed rather than over-borrowed, he was on more delicate ground when dealing with some of the smaller municipal loans and certain industrial ventures. As regards the former, there was a 'relied' suggestion that the smaller municipalities, by straining for terms scarcely consistent with their standing, had impaired rather than strengthened the popularity of loans of that description."

CANADIAN GRAIN OVER AMERICAN LINES

MEASURES TAKEN TO FACILITATE SHIPMENT

Action Result of Suggestion by Dominion Government to Relieve Congestion

New York, Nov. 15.—The conference entered into here yesterday with representatives of various western railroads for the handling of the Western Canadian grain trade was evidently crowned with success. Cy Warman, general assistant manager of the Grand Trunk system, gave out the following: "At the request of the Dominion government, the Grand Trunk railway has to-day authorized a traffic arrangement which is intended to relieve the traffic situation and to prevent a congestion in the Canadian West."

"By this arrangement the Grand Trunk will open every gateway along the border west of the Great Lakes and allow the traffic to flow out over American lines and back to the Grand Trunk at Chicago."

"President Chamberlain has arranged to meet Attorney-General Rice, of Rhode Island, and W. C. Bliss, chairman of the Rhode Island public utilities commission, here to-day."

"The two delegates have been directly charged by Governor Pothier to obtain from the Grand Trunk here a definite statement with regard to the company's intentions respecting further construction work in New England."

MAYOR REFUSED TO "MOVE ON."

Little Falls, N. Y., Nov. 15.—George R. Luna, Socialist mayor of Schenectady, was found guilty to-day of violating the city ordinance recently in refusing to move when the police interrupted a speech he was making to striking mill employees. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or spend fifty days in jail.

UNIONISTS CONDEMN MEMBERS' INDEMNITY

Gratuitous Parliamentary Service Approved at Meeting Held This Morning

MOTOR BOAT MUFFLER.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 15.—The very latest of the noise-killing devices of Hiram Percy Maxim, Jr., of this city, inventor of the noiseless gun, and son of Sir Hiram, the noted English ordnance expert, is a successful motor boat muffler, which Maxim exhibited yesterday at his laboratory where he is constantly improving and perfecting his gun and cannon silencers. A set of discs are arranged to start the escaping exhaust of gas whirling around and around, as water swirls in running from a sink bowl. Thus the discs are rendered non-vibrant and at a distance of about thirty feet not the slightest exhaust popping can be heard in the biggest motorboat engines. The whole contrivance measures from twelve to twenty-nine inches, according to the amount of work it is expected to perform, and commensurately weighs from twenty to thirty-four pounds.

PROBLEM OF FRUIT MARKETS.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 15.—Problems in marketing was the topic threshed out to-day at the fruit growers' conference in connection with the National Apple Show here. Among the principal speakers were W. T. Clark, president of the Wenatchee Valley Fruit Growers' Association.

COBALT MINERS STRIKE.

Over a Thousand Refuse Reduction in Wages.

Cobalt, Ont., Nov. 15.—Porcupine miners, voting all day yesterday, decided by a solid vote for a general strike throughout the Porcupine camp and walked out this morning. Before Monday it is likely that the strike will reach every mine in the camp. The strike was called because of a reduction of 25 cents a day in the wages per man. Over 1,000 men are affected.

DEATHS IN U. S. MINES.

Washington, Nov. 15.—There were 1,453 men killed in and about coal mines of the United States during the first eight months of this year, according to announcement of the bureau of mines to-day.

WANTS SPECIAL SESSION.

Champ Clark Thinks Democrats Should Fulfill Pledge.

Washington, Nov. 15.—"I believe there should be an extra session of congress at the earliest possible date after March 4 to fulfill the pledges made by the Democratic party," said Speaker Champ Clark upon his return to Washington to-day. "The party has made its promises and it should not put off the fulfilling of them."

BALD-HEADS ORGANIZE.

Falls Village, Conn., Nov. 15.—The Bald-Head Club of America will be given permanent organization at a meeting here November 15, according to a call for the gathering just issued. The membership of the temporary organization includes men of glistering names from Massachusetts to Minnesota. The temporary president is R. J. Orr, of Pittsfield, Mass.

DRY DOCK WANTED ON ST. LAWRENCE

Quebec Deputation Interviews Minister of Public Works on the Matter

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—The necessity of a drydock at Quebec, as emphasized by recent accidents on the St. Lawrence, was urged upon the minister of public works to-day by a Quebec deputation which included Sir Rodolphe Forget. The question has been hanging fire a long time, a feature of it being the rivalry as to whether the location should be Quebec or Lévis. The experts have all reported in favor of St. Joseph de Lévis as a site as compared with the proposed Quebec side of the St. Lawrence. It is probable that a final decision will be reached shortly.

"LIGHTS OUT."

Ingénious Method of Warning Children Off Streets.

Los Angeles, Nov. 15.—"Curfew shall not blink to-night," may write an aspiring Los Angeles poet in future. Chief of Police Sebastian has hit upon a novel curfew idea to warn children off the streets and that which cures elsewhere may blink here. The plan is to turn off the street lights—blink them for a few seconds each night at 9 o'clock, and children under 17 years found on the streets after the curfew "blinks" will be escorted home by the police or to the police station after the first offence.

FOOLING LETTUCE.

Increasing Its Growth by Use of Electricity.

Walla Walla, Wash., Nov. 15.—Using electricity, the Walla Walla Horticulture Vegetable Company has "shipped over" on lettuce, and as a result four crops are now grown where only three were produced. The theory is that the lettuce doesn't know when night comes and keeps on growing. Results are obtained by the use of eight 2,000-candle-power flaming arc lights as soon as the sun goes down.

MINISTERS' TRIP TO DOMINION CAPITAL

Title to University Site and Imperial Naval Reserve Has Been Secured

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—Attorney-General Bower, of British Columbia was able to announce last night on the eve of his departure for the West, after a week of negotiations in Ottawa, the result of this year's pilgrimage by Sir Richard McBride and himself to Ottawa.

The first announcement is that as a result of a conference held with Hon. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, yesterday, the Dominion government has decided definitely and finally to hand over to British Columbia any claim or title it may have to the University grounds at Point Grey.

A second announcement made by Mr. Bower to the province is that the naval reserve, consisting of two hundred acres, which was transferred to the Dominion government by the Imperial authorities, has been handed over entirely to the provincial government, which will at once subdivide the property, and put it up for public auction. This is done as a result of negotiations with Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and with the full consent and approval of Premier Borden and his colleagues.

Mr. Bower also made the definite announcement that the argument in the companies act case will not be proceeded with on November 26 by the Supreme court. On that date a formal motion will be made for an adjournment of the hearing, until the winter term of the court. The attorney-general had no statement in regard to the other important matters under discussion.

TURKS CAPTURE BRITISH STEAMER

SAID TO BE LOADED WITH WAR MUNITIONS

Agent Claims Vessel Was Loaded With Coal for Greek Government

London, Nov. 15.—A Lloyd's dispatch from Athens says the British steamer Annetta, from Philadelphia October 23 and New York October 25, has been captured. The steamer is said to have a cargo of war stores for Albania.

New York, Nov. 15.—The steamer Annetta, which is reported in a message from Athens to have been seized for carrying contraband cargo, is the property of the Donald Steamship Company. John A. Donald of that company said last night that the Annetta carried a cargo of coal consigned to the Greek government when she left here and was scheduled to return with a cargo of currants for the Thanksgiving trade. Mr. Donald could not understand how or why the vessel had been seized.

LAKE NAVIGATION.

Winnipeg, Nov. 15.—Underwriters have agreed to extend insurance on hulls loaded December 4th and sailing December 5th. Navigation will probably continue until December 12th to 15th.

WRECKED MAYFLOWER FOUND.

Barry's Bay, Nov. 15.—The Mayflower, the old steamer which sank Tuesday night with a loss of nine lives, was located last night in Kamiskague lake, near the neck of the narrows, in twenty feet of water. The cause of the accident was the sudden springing of a leak by the bow. Water poured into her stern and she sank in fifteen minutes.

JURISDICTION OVER COUNTRY'S FISHERIES

Important Case Will Be Heard in the Supreme Court Soon

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 14.—Two important cases, involving the question of the jurisdiction of the provinces and the Dominion have been set for November 26 by the Supreme court. The one is the companies case and the other the British Columbia fisheries test case. Representatives from nearly all the provinces will be present on that date.

The fisheries case is a dispute of long standing between the two governments, and arises out of the decision of the Imperial Privy Council some years ago in the Ontario fisheries case, when a decision was given that the provinces had the property right to fish, while the Dominion had the right to regulate.

British Columbia claimed that the province should also have power to regulate to a certain degree, and a test case was submitted.

RAILWAYS REACH AGREEMENT.

Kettle Valley and Great Northern to Build Over Hope Mountains.

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—The Kettle Valley Line and the Great Northern Railway have finally made an arrangement respecting railway construction covering the Hope Range and approaches. As a result of a conference between Mr. J. J. Warren, president of the former company, and Mr. J. C. Gilman, of Seattle, assistant to the president of the Great Northern, it has been agreed that the latter road will build a double-track line, eleven miles long, up the west fork of Otter river to Otter Summit, to be used in common by both companies.

The section referred to is east of the summit of the Hope mountains. In virtue of the same arrangement the Kettle Valley Line will build a single track line, ultimately to be double tracked, between Otter Summit and the summit of the Hope range, a distance of twelve miles. This last-mentioned section is now being built by single track line from Hope Summit down the Comahua river to Hope on the Fraser river. This line will be used in common and will be built at the joint expense of both companies.

WINS NOBEL PRIZE.

Stockholm, Nov. 15.—The Nobel prize for literature was awarded to-day to Gerhart Hauptmann, the German author and dramatist.

LOCOMOTIVE BOILER EXPLODES.

Engineer and Fireman on G. T. R.
Fatally Injured.

Hamilton, Nov. 15.—George E. A. Cook, engineer, and Samuel Salt, fireman, both of Niagara Falls, were fatally injured this morning when the boiler of the engine of Grand Trunk train No. 11 exploded. Surprise is expressed that more were not hurt, as the emergency brakes were jammed on and passengers and crew were thrown about through the coaches.

YOUNG MILLIONAIRE'S BIRTHDAY.

New York, Nov. 15.—To-day was Vincent Astor's 21st birthday and he took legal title this morning to the fortune left by his father, Col. J. J. Astor. The total amount of the estate is estimated at $30,000,000, of which Vincent Astor receives approximately $27,000,000.

GOVERNMENT AND GRAND TRUNK

DOUBT SURROUNDS THEIR RELATIONS, RUMOR SAYS

Chairman of Railway Does Not Know Meaning of Toronto Dispatch

London, Nov. 15.—The Toronto correspondent of the Times wired to-day that a doubt surrounds the whole future of the transcontinental railway and the relations between the government and the Grand Trunk railway, but adds with confidence that the government will not so interpret the contract to produce the interests of the Grand Trunk railway.

Interviewed to-day by the Canadian Associated Press, A. Smithers, chairman of the Grand Trunk railway, said: "I have not the slightest idea of what the Times correspondent means by saying that a doubt arises as to the future of the enterprise. It seems to me quite unnecessary to say that the government does not intend to prejudice the company's interests. I feel certain that such an idea never entered Premier Borden's head."

POLITICAL MIX-UP.

California Legislature May Determine Result of Presidential Vote.

Los Angeles, Nov. 15.—In all probability the question of whether Wilson or Roosevelt carried California in the presidential election will be taken up to the National House of Representatives. This was the statement made to-day by Democratic leaders just before they went into a conference with the law committee of the Democratic committee to discuss the Los Angeles ballot situation and to determine their plan of action with reference to the writ of mandamus now pending in the district court of appeals.

ENTOMBED IN MINE.

Four Visitors, Two of Them Women,
Among the Imprisoned.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 15.—Twelve persons, four of them visitors, and two young women, are entombed in the workings of the Old Horn silver mine at Frisco, Beaver county, Utah. The visitors are uninjured on the 300-foot level. The fate of seven miners in the lower levels is uncertain.

INDISCRIMINATE CHARITY.

New York, Nov. 15.—Mrs. August Belmont, Miss Anne Morgan and other prominent New York women are among the founders of a new organization, "The Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving." The society will do its utmost to abolish the "exchange system of Christmas giving" among those who can ill-afford.

FISHERIES TREATY HAS NOW BEEN RATIFIED

Provides for Adjournment of Controversy Between Canada and United States

Washington, Nov. 15.—Secretary Knox and Ambassador Bryce exchanged ratifications to-day of the treaty signed July 7 last, providing for an adjournment between Great Britain and the United States of the North Atlantic fisheries controversy. The convention already has been approved by the senate. In substance it prescribes the boundary waters and provides a commission to pass upon the reasonableness of local and Canadian and Newfoundland fisheries regulations.

JOHNSON SECURES BAIL.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, accused of violation of the Mann White Slave Act, was released from custody to-day before Judge Carpenter in the United States district court in bonds of $20,000.

TURKEY'S REQUEST FOR ARMISTICE

WILL BE CONSIDERED BY BALKAN ALLIES

In Meantime Turkey Must Submit to Terms Dictated by Bulgaria

Sofia, Nov. 15.—The Turkish request for mediation by the powers was presented to the Bulgarian premier by the ministers of the great powers.

"The Ottoman government having appointed the great powers of Europe to ask their mediation, we are charged to inquire of your excellency if Bulgaria is disposed to accept this mediation, and if so, to what conditions her acceptance will be?"

The request was discussed to-day by the Bulgarian council of ministers. It was decided to reply that the Bulgarian government would inform the other nations of the Balkan alliance of the step taken by Turkey, and would give its reply as soon as possible after coming to an agreement with them.

After the allies have consulted it is believed the negotiations for an armistice will be carried on by the commanding generals of the opposing armies purely from a military point of view.

The negotiations can begin only after the Turkish authorities have accepted the terms laid down by the Bulgarians that in the meantime no further reinforcements of Turkish troops may be brought into the field of operations.

CONVICT'S CUTE RUSE.

Feigns Study of Christian Science and Devises Means of Escape.

Salem, Ore., Nov. 15.—T. L. Gordon made a clever escape from the state prison last night. He was a member of a class of fifteen convicts studying theosophy from 7 to 9 o'clock each Wednesday evening under the direction of Walter A. Denton, a volunteer teacher. As the class went into the prison library Gordon slipped behind a partition and was not missed until the class started to return to the cells. Search revealed that Gordon, in an adjoining room, had bored holes through the floor, letting himself down into the basement, from whence he had made his way into the prison yard and scaled the fence by the aid of a ladder. No trace of him has been found. Gordon was received from Union county, December 31, 1911, convicted of burglary, and sentenced to from two to five years.

NEW YORK'S CHOICE BANDIT.

New York, Nov. 15.—"Dago Frank" Cirofici, the fourth of the gunmen on trial for the murder of Herman Rosen, that was to take the stand to-day in an attempt to corroborate his pals, "Lefty Louie," "Whitey" Lewis, and "Gyp the Blood," who testified yesterday that the shots which killed the gambler had not been fired by them but by Valton and Webber, informers for the state, and a man as yet unidentified. "Dago Frank," they swore, was not even near the scene of the murder as they were, but was uptown. The defendants have tried to establish that they were lured to the scene by "Bald Jack" Rose in order that they might be implicated, while Webber and Valton did the job. Aside from "Dago Frank" it is understood the defence has at least fifteen other witnesses to call.

GRANGERS INCREASING.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 15.—Jubilant over the announcement that 473 new granges were organized in the last year and that the assets now reach approximately $100,000, the National Grange, now holding its 46th annual convention here, has according to a statement made by National Master Wilson, decided to double its efforts next year in organizing granges in the remaining states not yet represented in the organization. As evidence of the grange's rapid growth, Mr. Wilson points to the fact that the seventh and highest degree in the organization will be conferred to-night on a class of more than 100 candidates.

ON A MONTH'S HOLIDAY.

President-Elect Wilson Will Relax for a Month.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 15.—President-elect Wilson planned to leave this afternoon for New York, where he will attend a dinner given in his honor at the University Club by the class of 1879 of Princeton University, of which he is a member. To-morrow the governor will sail on his steamship trip. Mrs. Wilson, Miss Jessie, and Miss Eleanor Wilson will accompany the president-elect. The trip will last a month.

LEADER IN LORDS TALKS ON PREFERENTIAL TRADE

Unionists Have a Plan Which Will Prove Satisfactory to Everybody

London, Nov. 14.—At the mass meeting of Unionists at the Albert hall to-night, Lord Lansdowne emphasized the fact that the Unionist party was most anxious that the overseas dominions should be given a voice in the councils of the nation, and that they should co-operate in providing for her defence. They were convinced that the soundest foundation for a closer union was to be found in the establishment of closer trade relations between the different parts of the empire. That was why the Unionist party gave tariff reform the foremost place in their policy. His lordship said:

"We must be free to meet the dominions half way in regard to reciprocal trading; what we shall give them depends to a great extent upon what they ask. Each side will, no doubt, think most of its own people, but both sides will, I hope, think most of the empire."

"If, when the time comes, the great dominions ask us to grant them, in return for substantial advances which they will be prepared to give us; if they ask us to give them a moderate duty upon foreign wheat, sufficient to bring into our markets the great and unlimited granaries of all Canada and Australia, we shall not be deterred from meeting their proposals by a measure that will not involve taxation of our food."

CHANGE OF AMBASSADORS.

Tokio, Nov. 14.—Official announcement was made here to-day that the Right Hon. Sir C. M. Macdonald, K. C. V. O., has resigned his post as British ambassador to Japan, which he has held with distinction for the past twelve years. He is succeeded by Sir William Conyngham Greene, who has been minister to Denmark for some time.

C. N. R.'S BIG DEAL WITH VANCOUVER

Report That Hitch Has Occurred in Negotiations and Blocked It

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—That the Canadian Northern's proposed deal for the securing from the city of the False Creek mudflats has been dropped is a report that is obtaining a good deal of circulation on the streets to-day. In no official quarter can a statement be obtained that the railway company has dropped its plan to enter False Creek, and it appears that the absence of information from the East is one of the chief foundations for the report that the scheme to fill in has been abandoned.

Col. A. D. Davidson, who conducted the negotiations with the city council on behalf of the railway company, left for the East several weeks ago, presumably to discuss various features of the arrangement with Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Donald Mann, respectively president and vice-president of the Canadian Northern railway. At the city hall there is an absence of information from Col. Davidson. The mayor has not been advised when he will return to resume negotiations, if such action is intended.

At the city hall it is regarded as quite possible that Sir Richard McBride and Hon. W. J. Bowser have talked over the subject with Sir William Mackenzie, for the proposed deal had reached the stage before Col. Davidson left for the East to be put up to the provincial government authorities.

It is said that the president of the Canadian Northern objected to certain features of the proposals, notably the establishment here of ocean terminals. The entrance-by-tunnel portion of the scheme is also said to have been criticised from the standpoint of its practicability and convenience.

Persons who have been following the matter somewhat closely say that they look for the Canadian Northern to enter by way of the Grand View cut of the Great Northern.

TRIAL OF NEW YORK

GAMBLER'S MURDERERS

Gunman Gives Evidence Implicating Others in the Shooting of Rosenthal

New York, Nov. 14.—Harry Horowitz, otherwise known as "Gyp the Blood," the dandy of the four gunmen on trial charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal at Charles Becker's bidding, took the witness stand to-day and swore that the shots in front of the Hotel Metropole were fired by Harry Vallon, "Bridge" Webber, informers for the state, and a third man, mysteriously unnamed.

He denied every incriminating statement made by "Bald Jack" Rose, and said he and his companions did not even hear of the murder until several hours after it occurred. They were within a stone's throw of the scene, whether they had gone at a stranger's invitation, he said, and fled when they heard the shots.

"Gyp" under the questioning of his attorney, told of having been in Webber's poker room with Rose, Scheppes, Vallon, Cirofici and a strange man whom he did not know. Webber went out with the stranger, but the two returned in fifteen minutes.

"Gyp" was not allowed to tell what the stranger said. The four gunmen left the poker room with the stranger, he said. "Dago Frank" said he was going home and the others, including the stranger, walked to the Hotel Cadillac, at 43rd street and Broadway.

"We stood there by the Cadillac," the witness declared, "and the stranger walked across 43rd street. He approached Rose, Webber, Vallon and Scheppes, who were standing opposite the Metropole. All five of them walked over toward the Metropole, Webber and Vallon first."

"All of a sudden we heard a shot. We saw Harry Vallon and 'Bridge' Webber and the strange man shooting."

"How many men did you see shooting?"

"These three—Harry Vallon, 'Bridge' Webber, and the strange man."

"As soon as we saw them firing," continued "Gyp," "we ran for the subway. A train was just pulling in and we boarded it without paying fares. We rode to 145th street and Lennox avenue and went to our flat."

"Dago Frank" was then at the flat, the witness said. The witness denied that Rose had ever asked him and his companions to murder Rosenthal. Rose's motive in seeking them, he said, was to assure them that he had no part in the "frame-up" of "Big Jack" Zelig.

On cross-examination "Gyp" admitted that he had been convicted five times for larceny offences and had served several terms in penal institutions.

Mr. Moss read from stenographic notes taken at police headquarters the night of their arrest. There were several conflicting with to-day's testimony.

"I lied at headquarters," admitted "Gyp." "I committed by fate to the hands of a jury and an honorable judge, not to the police."

"Why did you not say then, if you knew it, that Vallon and Webber and the strange man had killed Rosenthal?"

"I would have been a fool to tell then," said "Gyp."

"You did not want that anyway. You offered me immunity if I'd accuse the others."

After cross-examination of "Gyp" was concluded "Whitey" Lewis took the stand.

SAYS ROWDYISM IS JUSTIFIABLE

IN ORDER TO DEFEAT HOME RULE MEASURE

Bonar Law Says Passage of Bill Would Lead to Civil War

London, Nov. 15.—Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition in the House of Commons, speaking at a big Unionist demonstration in the Albert hall to-night, said he did not regret last night's disturbance in the House and did not try to stop it.

While he would rejoice if a way out of the difficulty were found possible by the Speaker's intervention, it would not end the crisis, he said. The government was trying to do what it had no moral right to do, and the opposition would continue its endeavors to wreck the Home Rule bill in the House of Commons.

If the bill should become law the opposition would surely wreck it, he added. It was the intention to press for the reference of the bill to the electorate for their judgment, and thus prevent the degradation of the House of Commons, and what was more, civil war within the United Kingdom.

Lord Lansdowne said little about Wednesday's scene in the House of Commons, and gave no hints as to the future policy with reference to this. In dealing with the Home Rule question, he said he believed the reason support was accorded Home Rule in the country was that the people were feeling intense weariness over the Irish question. That, he declared, was a feeling of cowardice which was unstatesmanlike and unpatriotic.

INTERNATIONAL COURTESIES.

Ruse to "Extradite" a Criminal From Canada to United States.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 14.—The international treaty between the United States and Canada. It is not save Jack Black, alias Harry Klein, who escaped from the San Francisco county jail and fled to Canada while under a twenty-five year sentence. Black will be brought back, although the treaty does not provide for the extradition of jail-breakers. The San Francisco police department and the authorities at Lethbridge, Alta., where Black is serving a three-month sentence for having picked a man's pocket, have agreed upon a way to get Black into the United States. Governor Johnson has issued a requisition for Black on the governor of Montana. The police of Lethbridge will bring Black down to the 49th meridian—the imaginary line dividing the United States and Canada—and give him a gentle shove, propelling him across the line into the arms of a San Francisco detective, who will be waiting for him on Montana soil.

SURVIVORS PICKED UP.

Eleven Victims of Wreck of Lake Steamer.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Eleven persons probably perished when the steamer boat Mayflower sank in Madewaska river. A dispatch to-day from Barry's Bay, three miles from the scene of the disaster, said that there was little or no hope that any more of those aboard the Mayflower when she went down Tuesday night would be found alive.

Three survivors were found last night half frozen on an island three miles below where the boat went down.

SCHRAK IS DANGEROUS.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 14.—One of the alienists examining John Schrank, the confessed assailant of Col. Roosevelt, said privately to-day that Schrank shows evidence that he considers himself a deep student of psychology, that he thinks he is capable of adjusting any wrong, and that he thinks he is peculiarly fitted to judge of the psychological merit of a question affecting the public, hence the alienist said Schrank might again come to believe in the use of force to correct political ills, and therefore might be dangerous to human life.

SEATTLE BOND ISSUE.

Seattle, Nov. 14.—Two bids were received by the port of Seattle commission to-day for a serial bond issue aggregating $2,350,000 and bearing 4 1/2 per cent. interest. Neither of the bids being satisfactory to the commission, both were rejected and the commissioners will fix a date for the opening of new bids. This date will be determined on within a day or two and the necessary advertisement prepared.

"TAINTED" NEWS FROM OTTAWA

SUBSIDIZED PRESS
BUREAU AT WORK

Emergency in the Cabinet is the Cause of Much
Flag-Waving

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—With the approaching session of parliament and the necessity for Mr. Borden to bring forward without delay his "emergency" naval propositions, there is an evident effort by the government papers throughout Canada to revive the Imperial emergency bugaboo. This is particularly apparent, since it is calculated not only to pave the way for the expedient by which Mr. Borden hopes to put off the presentation of a permanent naval policy, but will help to detract attention from Mr. Borden's own emergency cabinet trouble.

Apparently this campaign is being engineered in a particularly insidious manner, by using British news in such a way as to convey misleading impressions, in this way any British news calculated to foment the "emergency" scare is magnified, while scant and contemptuous reference is made to authoritative statements from members of the Imperial government to the reverse effect. In this work the Jingoism on both sides of the Atlantic have an active ally in Lord Roberts, who, unshackled by responsibility, and devoid of the adoption of conservatism, is willing to voice his traditional militarism on all occasions. The veteran soldier is apparently being made use of by the German peril shouters, just as the Tory party of Canada a few years ago used Lord Dundonald.

This campaign has been particularly in evidence since Lord Roberts' latest outbreak at Manchester. The agencies which supply the Canadian government press, loaded with lurid reports of this speech, grossly exaggerate its importance, and at the same time try to belittle the reply which it evoked from the only responsible persons who could so reply, the ministers of His Majesty's government.

The manner in which this campaign is being worked is pretty well shown up by two paragraphs which, by a singular coincidence, have appeared in all the government papers at the same time. In the course of a column or so of material, some of which was genuine news, were interpolated paragraphs of a strongly partisan nature, such as "Lord Roberts has been publicly rebuked for indiscretion in his Manchester speech by two ministers, Sir Edward Grey and Mr. Runciman, whose treatment of the veteran soldier has aroused much indignation." And again in the same article following a report of the launch of the Iron Duke, was inserted this paragraph: "Thus barely a week elapsed between the launch and the starting of a new construction, instead of months, as was formerly usual. Such facts will enable Canadians to judge of the eagerness with which Britain awaits Mr. Borden's announcement of his naval policy in November."

The facts are, however, the extreme violence of Lord Roberts' "Arm and prepare for Germany" speech compelled the government to take precautionary steps to prevent the outbreaks of this old soldier from causing trouble. Germany, of course, officially ignored his speech, but it was eagerly snapped up by the German Jingo papers. Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister, gravely dealt with the subject and administered a sharp rebuke to Lord Roberts when he said in parliament: "I should very much deprecate any suggestion that either government Great Britain or Germany should notice the unwise or provocative speeches by persons not in a position to control the policy of their respective countries," and this statement was received, not with indignation, but with cheers.

Even more pitiless was the condemnation of Hon. Mr. Runciman as president of the board of trade, holding one of the most important portfolios of the Imperial government. Speaking on behalf of the government, Hon. Mr. Runciman deplored Lord Roberts' Manchester speech, and said he did not believe that war between Great Britain and Germany was unavoidable, so that a statement such as that made by Lord Roberts was not only deplorable but pernicious and dangerous. He said that the rivalry between Germany and Great Britain was more commercial than military, and that the only persons who wished to make it a military rivalry were "a small group of journalists, a few soldiers and makers of armaments, and a small section of the people who believed that the dignity of the nation is raised by irritating our neighbors." Nothing could be clearer than this. How, in the face of such a pronouncement by a member of the British cabinet, Mr. Borden will be able to persuade the Canadian people that a grave emergency exists will be interesting to see.

Apparently we are to rush over to the Imperial treasury an emergency contribution for the benefit of "makers of armaments" there, "a few soldiers," "That is the verdict, not of a rattle-brained politician, but the deliberately reasoned declaration of a responsible minister of the Imperial government."

Yet this responsible utterance is sneered at by the Canadian Jingo press and Lord Roberts, because of his fire-eating speech, is acclaimed as a national saviour. Naturally Premier McBride, of British Columbia, also heads for the limelight in this campaign. In a recent speech he came out with the modest demand that before long "we shall be able to lay claim to a regular Canadian army and navy, second to none in the world." Even Lord Roberts fades into insignificance beside this B. C. prop of the Dominion government. It is well Canadians should see whether Jingoism is leading them.

ARCTIC BROTHERHOOD IN VERY HEATED STATE

Proposal to Form Camps in South Creates a Great
Commotion

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—As the result of an attempt upon the part of Vancouver and Seattle delegates to change the constitution of the Arctic Brotherhood so that camps may be established south of the fifty-fourth parallel of latitude without referring the proposed amendment to a referendum of the northern camps, a serious split is threatened in the famous northern order, and delegates from the camps in the Yukon, British Columbia and Alaska are predicting that if the amendment goes through at this afternoon's session the northern camps will secede from the jurisdiction of the grand camp and go into court if necessary to prevent the use of the ritual, insignia and name of the brotherhood by the camps which it is planned to organize in Vancouver, Seattle and other northwestern cities.

It is believed, however, that the delegates from Vancouver and Seattle, most of whom hold proxies from members in the northern camps, will force their programme through and they will be able to outvote the actual resident Alaskan and Yukoners who are bitterly opposing this change, which they declare will destroy the real significance of the Arctic Brotherhood, for heretofore it has been illegal to establish camps south of the fifty-fourth meridian, or to initiate any member except in one of the camps in the Yukon, Northern British Columbia or Alaska.

The whole affair is the culmination of the initiation of President Taft and some 200 others by the officers of the grand camp at the A.-V.-P. Exposition at Seattle in 1909, said a northern delegate to-day. "Overriding the constitution and defying the bitter protests of the northern camps, the officers of the grand camp made President Taft a member of the Arctic Brotherhood. He was the first member initiated who had not been north of the fifty-fourth meridian. Rather than disrupt the brotherhood the members of the northern camps stood for this high-handed procedure, although it was displeasing to them."

"Using this as a precedent, however, the 'near-northerners' of Vancouver and Seattle, who had left Alaska and the Yukon, are now proposing to violate the constitution by authorizing the establishment of camps in the Pacific Northwest. They also want the power to initiate members. This is a direct violation of the constitution, which provides that any constitutional change proposed by the grand camp must be referred to a referendum of the northern camps before it becomes effective. The chief distinction of the Arctic Brotherhood has been that all its camps were in the Yukon, Alaska or that portion of British Columbia that lies above the fifty-fourth meridian and that all members initiated had to be above the fifty-fourth meridian when the initiation took place.

"Politics is the motive behind the move. Many of the prominent Arctic brothers were office-holders in the Yukon and Alaska, and as the administration changed recently in the Yukon, and is about to change in Alaska, many of these members are leaving the north-land and coming to Vancouver, Victoria, Portland and Tacoma. WRECK SEASON ON LAKES.

Another Steamer Founders—Passengers Escape.

Elk Lake, Ont., Nov. 15.—The steamer B. and V. of the Upper Ontario Steamboat Company, en route from Park Rapids to Flat Rapids, on the run from Latchford to Elk Lake, sank one minute and a half after striking a dead snag in the Montreal river last night, about four miles below Flat Rapids. The boat was headed directly for shore, and the fifteen passengers saved themselves by jumping into the shallow water as the boat struck the beach. Most of the baggage and all the mail and freight went down with the craft.

FISHERY PROTECTION.

One of the forms of political epilepsy suffered by G. H. Barnard, M. P., during the campaign of 1911 was a species of frenzied agitation because the West Coast fishing banks were inadequately protected by the Liberal government. It is quite unnecessary to hark back to the files of the government organs of that period to recall the exaggerated speech of Mr. Barnard, the misrepresentations he indulged in, or the excited frame of mind which he exhibited. Both Mr. Barnard and his party press conducted a campaign of fabrication rarely if ever equalled in the history of British Columbia politics. Without doubt these representations and misrepresentations had some effect, and one feature of the effect was the confidence evoked among Conservative electors that if Mr. Barnard should be elected and parliament should be in control of the political party to which he professes allegiance, the conditions Mr. Barnard portrayed as existent on the West Coast would be remedied. True to their political instincts, the government organs have, since the fishing season opened, proclaimed the efficiency of the protection afforded the West Coast banks under the benevolent Borden regime. The press agents of the Borden party have telegraphed East that four ships are now in the employ of the government and the Pacific Canadian waters are patrolled in a manner that has all but completely eliminated piratical fishing operations in Canadian waters. The officers in charge of patrol vessels have reported the coast clear of poachers, and even inspectors have declared that no piratical ships have been sighted while engaged in their illicit trade. It is interesting, therefore, to know what are the facts.

On September 30 the good ship Newington called at Victoria after a cruise of the West Coast. Her officers reported that only four fishing schooners had been sighted, and these were "under way" to the fishing grounds, ostensibly the halibut banks. The fact is that on September 25 four American fishing schooners were anchored in Refuge Cove and at various times before and after that date were engaged in taking bait in Canadian streams. The names of these schooners are the Washington, Valiant, Daisy and Roosevelt. A day or two after this the schooner Pacific was seen in North Channel thirty miles out of her course and far within inland waters, where she had no business of any kind unless to poach bait. The residents of Nootka have repeatedly watched American schooners sailing in Canadian waters, secure from interference from the "fleet" of protecting vessels supposed to be on patrol of the coast. For some mysterious reason these schooners operate illegally without apparent fear of detection or seizure.

It needs no spy to discover these violations of the Canadian fishery regulations. The occurrences are common talk at various points on the West Coast. So much an everyday affair have these infractions of the law become that Norwegians and other European fishermen unacquainted with the intricacies of Canadian law and unfamiliar with the practices of Canadian politicians have concluded that an agreement has been reached between the governments of the two countries by which the American poachers are permitted to carry on their piratical steals without let or hindrance. They think there has been a new arrangement entered into between Canada and the United States since the Borden government has come into power, and they have appearances with them to warrant their suspicions. What Mr. Barnard and the Borden organs so loudly deplored as negligence and indifference on the part of the Laurier government has been five times multiplied under the Borden regime.

The Borden press asserts that the number of protective vessels has been doubled. We do not doubt the statement, but the effectiveness of the vessels added to the old pair of patrols is much to be doubted. It looks as though the expense of protection for the West Coast has been doubled while the results are not as satisfactory as they were, with fewer steamers in commission. People who read these indisputable facts will be inclined to ask not only "Where is Barnard?" but "What is Barnard?" To be candid, we feel that way about it ourselves.

TECHNICAL EMERGENCY.

The exculpation of the Borden government from its responsibility for the abandonment of the Laurier naval policy and the task of extricating Mr. Borden from the honor of the pledges by which he engaged the sympathy and help of the Nationalists in the hardest task ever forced upon Canadian Conservative journals. The claim that an imminent crisis confronts the Empire has been abandoned, because untenable in the face of disclosures made since the theory was first put forward. But having started out on the "emergency" idea, the jingo organs believe it necessary to maintain the contention. Though the emergency may be a long way off, with an even chance that it will never materialize, it is still necessary to hold the cue, for that is the only theory on which Mr. Borden can excuse himself for his betrayal of his country by the abandonment of the policy upon which parliament agreed.

The Montreal Star has evolved a theory of what might be termed "technical" emergency. The case is thus stated, the reference in the first sentence being to writers who are slow to accept the emergency scare:

"If these writers will consult any list of battleships, they will find that Britain has to-day a very considerable superiority over Germany on the face of the figures. The danger—so far as it is a present danger—lies chiefly in two facts—(1) that at our 'average moment' we could not oppose our full strength to Germany at her 'selected moment'; and (2) that our superiority in the Home waters would be reduced if we were compelled suddenly to send a fleet of Dreadnoughts to the Mediterranean. Now when the Admiralty equip a special fleet for service in the Mediterranean for a short time—for an 'emergency'—they presumably bring instant readiness, thus making this our 'selected moment.' This alone increases our efficiency by—say—twenty-five per cent. And this is quite possible for an 'emergency' which will not last very long, but could not be kept up permanently. Then not one battleship of the highest class is being sent to the Mediterranean. They are second-class and third-class battleships—fine ships, of course, but not the ships that are lined up for comparison with German Dreadnoughts.

"Again, 'emergency' so far as Canadian action is concerned, is not based upon the present figures; but upon the figures which will represent the condition of affairs when the new Canadian warships—if any are voted—can be got ready. It is a future 'emergency' which Canada is asked to meet, but by no means a problematical 'emergency' for the present. German Navy Act looks forward to 1920. The 'emergency' is there on the face of the programme already adopted by the Reichstag; and few believe that that programme will not be augmented in the near future, precisely as it has been augmented five times in the last fourteen years."

We publish this lengthy argument to show how ridiculous a responsible journal must become when supporting a lost cause. Let us go back quietly and honorably to the Laurier naval policy and have done with such trash.

PARTY FEALTY.

One of the difficult problems confronting church workers is the task of opposing moral and economic wrongs and advocating reforms without projecting politics into church work or church work into politics. Political fealty is usually stronger than religious and moral conviction, and nothing can wreck a church or other moral aggregation quicker than a suggestion within the body that the policy of a particular political party demands the support of the electorate. Last week in Hamilton, Ontario, Rev. S. T. Bartlett, who is general conference secretary of Epworth Leagues in the Methodist church, said that all Epworth Leagues should support the "banish-the-bar" policy of N. W. Rowell, the Liberal opposition leader in that province. Whereupon the Hamilton Herald, professing an independent Conservative paper, protests in these words:

"This means that all Epworth Leagues should support the Liberal party in this province. Attempts of this sort to rally religious organizations to the support of one or the other of the political parties must tend to disrupt the organizations."

We suppose the Herald would have said the same thing if Rev. S. T. Bartlett had declared it to be the duty of all Epworth Leagues to support the "abolish-the-treating system" policy of Sir James Whitney. It would have been wrong in both cases, but more wrong in one instance than in the other, that is, supposing it to be the conviction of a citizen that one or other of these policies is in the public interest.

One of the curious idiosyncrasies of human nature which has always puzzled the upright, honest politician whose heart is set on so-called reforms, is that he can place little dependence on the support of the church membership of his constituency when his policy of reform is antagonistic to his political opponents. As a rule the partisan voter wants reform, but is willing to wait the convenience of his own party. He would rather delay reform that vote his party out of power to elect another party pledged to his pet reform. The insincerity of the electorate in instances of this kind is responsible for most of the political juggling of which both the historic parties are accused. Many men are too weak to boldly espouse a good cause and stand by it, simply because they know that the church membership cannot be relied upon to break party affiliations even for the sake of reform. The church membership drives politicians to be party men first and reformers afterward, and it is because of this indisputable fact that many desirable reforms are so long delayed.

The same fault lies at the door of distinctively temperance organizations. British Columbia had a striking instance of this in the last provincial election. The Local Option League of the province had asked the government of Sir Richard McBride to introduce a local option law. Sir Richard, snubbed, refused. The result was that the provincial executive of the Local Option League, at a meeting held a few days before the election, sent out a telegraphed resolution relinquishing the membership in the league from voting for Liberal candidates, though the Liberal party had put local option as a plank in its platform. No political party can be expected to take temperance or other moral reforms seriously under such circumstances.

Temperance reformers and all other social reformers have the issues in their own hands. There are enough of them in every province of Canada to secure the legislation desired could they be expected to break with their political parties and put their reforms in the first place. But they cannot be trusted, and reforms languish. The mouths of honest and honorable men whom they pay to agitate for such reforms are muzzled. Churches and temperance associations are ruptured and disintegrated as soon as a leader or teacher endorses the principles of a political party. It is not his Satanic Majesty who whispers over our shoulder that it is time some of these people "took a tumble" to the situation.

British trade is increasing so rapidly that the tariff reformers are at their wits' end to find some excuse or reason for keeping up the propaganda.

Sir Richard McBride now says that "we may awake some morning to find a foreign fleet at our doors." What foreign fleet—Japan's or Germany's? asks the London Advertiser. Sir Richard's language is as foolish as it is indefinite.

Fate seems to be unfavorable to the Borden government. Again it has been necessary to go to the United States Interstate Commerce Commission and make arrangements for the transportation of Canadian grain through United States territory and by the partial favor of American railways. While everyone will rejoice that measures are being taken to remove the grain blockade in the Canadian West, it seems nothing short of ridiculous to contend that we must not increase our trade relations with the United States by any fair and businesslike understanding as to tariff regulations. Some politicians would rather go on their knees for a favor than make a straight business deal, and the Borden government seems to be constituted that way.

READY FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

An hotel keeper who happened to have a fair-sized nasal organ was one day mending a wheelbarrow, when a piece of wood jumped up and hit him on the bridge of the nose, cutting it right across. His wife dressed it very carefully, and put on a large patch of sticking-plaster. An hour or two after a woman who was passing through the village called at the house and ordered a pint of beer. On paying for the beer she looked at the hotel keeper and said:

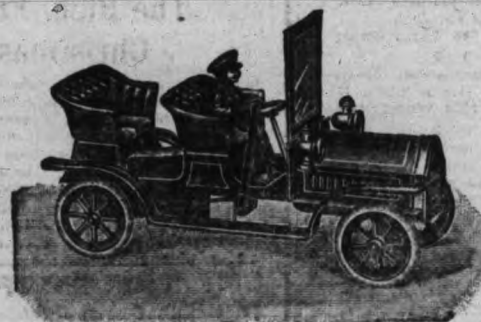

"Are you going for your holidays, suv'ner?"

"No. What makes you ask?"

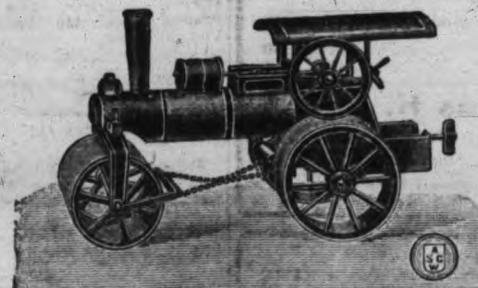

"Oh, nothing," said the woman. "I thought perhaps you were when I see you've got your trunk labelled."

John Wren was hit by a locomotive, but came through all right. Wren is evidently some bird.

Your Children Will Be Delighted to Know That Spencer's Toyland Opens To-day

SECOND
SIDE

THIS will be great news for the children, and the showing in the View street window is sufficient to wake up many a happy recollection of Santa Claus in the minds of the little folks. We invite you to bring the children to this department, you'll find it full of interest, and Spencer values are even better than ever this year. At the time we go to press, it is impossible to give full particulars, but the window display will give you some idea of the enormous stock of beautiful and instructive toys with which we have loaded up this department.

Men Can Buy $5 Shoes for $3.95

LEATHER is advancing in price, and when we are sold out of our present stock, our prices will advance. It is impossible to repeat the same values at the old prices in the face of such strong advances in the price of the raw material. These are good reasons why you should get a reasonable supply of shoes while the prices are down, but with the presence of heavy rains it is imperative that you should provide ample protection for your health.

CHROME TANNED BLUCHERS, made as waterproof as leather can be tanned, fitted with full double soles, are Goodyear welted and therefore extra comfortable and durable. They are the "Medico Brand" and come in both black and tan. All sizes at, per pair $3.95

BUTTON BOOTS are to be had in both black and tan calf. They are made on the latest American lasts and are finished with Goodyear welted soles. All sizes are here and men who want a stylish shoe will be pleased with this lot. Per pair $3.95

STRONG CALFSKIN BLUCHERS—These are fitted with the best of oak bark tanned and viscolized leather soles and heels. All the best shapes are to be had, including the smart styles that please the young man and the more conservative lasts appropriate for those of riper age. All sizes. Per pair $3.95

LEATHER LINED BOOTS, with strong box calf uppers and welted soles. They are as waterproof as leather of this class can be made and are an ideal shoe for street wear at the present season. Smart in appearance and as comfortable as you can wish a shoe to be. All sizes at, per pair $3.95

PATENT LEATHER BUTTON AND LACE BOOTS—These are made on very dressy lasts and have much to recommend them. Full of comfort, well finished, constructed from the best of materials, and to be had in all sizes. Per pair $3.95

Women Will Appreciate This Shoe Bargain, Regular $4 to Clear $2.95

NOT only is there a strong price inducement, but the style and finish of the shoes is sufficient to make a very rapid sale. One thing is sure, and that is the fact that in the face of the rapid advance in the price of leather, we shall not be able to repeat this wonderful value when once this lot is sold out. Now is your opportunity. It means that you get a discount of 25% on your purchase, and secure shoes that for style, finish and durability, cannot be equalled even at the regular price.

SMART BUTTON BOOTS are to be had in gun metal calf, velour calf, and vicid kid. You can choose from many attractive and serviceable styles in these leathers. They range from the models with the high toe and high heels down to the more conservative styles with the broad heels. Per pair $2.95

TAN CALF BUTTON AND LACE BOOTS are to be had in all sizes and various lasts. Either the high or the low heels are to be had and all are a suitable weight for wet weather wear. We never had a better value than this line represents even at $4.00. Per pair to-day at $2.95

PATENT LEATHER BUTTON AND LACE BOOTS are to be had in a choice assortment of styles. All sizes are to be had. All the popular shapes of toes and heels are here and we consider them to be the most comfortable and durable patent leather shoes that we have ever handled at this price. Per pair $2.95

BLACK CALFSKIN BLUCHER BOOTS are very well suited for wet weather wear. They are finished with a sole of moderate weight, and you can choose between Cuban and school heels. Have a neat and pleasing appearance and are full of comfort. Per pair $2.95

Blanket News That Will Please You

NOW is the time when you appreciate good blankets. Cold nights demand recognition, and make their influence felt in an unpleasant manner to those who are ill-prepared to meet them. Here is price and quality news that should prove of special interest just now.

$4.00 BLANKETS REDUCED TO $3.00

Is a bargain that should bring many a woman from her home to-day. Every blanket is well worth the original price, but as we are pressed for space and have a large stock on hand, we have reduced the price to bring a rapid sale. Either full or three-quarter sizes are to be had and you'll find that their quality is all that you can wish it to be.

$4.25 VALUES NOW $3.75

Is another startling value that should give you entire satisfaction. They are made of carefully selected wool and are free from specks and other impurities. Have a good, nappy surface and are well finished. This is a splendid offer.

BLANKETS WORTH $6.50 MARKED AT $5.75

These are a heavy grade of wool blanket and are the product of one of the best of English mills. Each blanket is finished separately and all are well finished with whipped edges and neat blue borders. No better value at the price.

OTHER GOOD LINES

SCOTCH WOOL BLANKETS of the highest grade are to be had in various sizes and in various weights at this store. They are a class of blanket that has been known to give from 10 to 15 years of satisfactory service, and although a little expensive are well worth all they cost. Prices range from $15.00 a pair down to $7.50

GREY WOOL BLANKETS—We have just 25 pairs that we will clear at a special price. Will stand hard wear and are suitable for single beds. A very good bargain at, per pair $2.50

WOOL FILLED COMFORTERS—Just 2 dozen to be sold at this price. They are neat in appearance, strong, an extra large size and are filled with sanitary wool. A fine value at, each $1.75

Women's Long Scarfs

IN WOOL OR SILK, LIGHT AND DAINTY BUT MOST USEFUL

TO enumerate the varied occasions when one of these attractive scarfs will prove its worth to the average woman, would be an unnecessary task. The fact is that you can scarcely do without them, and once you have owned one, you would not like to be without one. These are to be had in the children's department on the first floor, near the entrance to the carpet department.

WHITE SILK SCARFS, finished with colored borders, range in price from $1.50 to $2.50

WHITE SCARFS, with a nice mercerized finish, and colored borders are a big value at, each 75c

FANCY WOOL AND SILK SCARFS come in two grades. Both are good values at the price, 75c and $1.00

WHITE WOOL SCARFS—These are very serviceable, neat and warm. Just the thing for constant service, finished with a neat fringe. Price, only $1.00

WHEN A WOMAN SLEEPS IN A GOOD

Flannelette Night Dress or Pyjamas SHE KNOWS WHAT REAL COMFORT IS

IF these garments were expensive they might be better thought of, and many women would wish that they were in a position to buy them. Their velvety touch, warmth, durability and pleasing appearance are attractions that should please any woman. Nothing is so desirable for cold nights and with such tempting lines as those quoted below, there should be a strong demand for them to-day.

AN EXTRA GOOD LINE of Flannelette Night Dresses are to be had in plain white and plain pink. All large sizes are to be had. Price $1.25

WOMEN'S NIGHT GOWNS, made of a good, fleecy flannelette, and finished with silk embroidery, are to be had in all sizes. Price $1.25

ANOTHER EXCELLENT VALUE comes in a plain white or plain pink flannelette. They are well made and are a dependable quality. Price is $1.00

IN WHITE FLANNELETTE there is a good line of night dresses. These are finished with a frill of self at the neck and are edged with narrow lace. You never saw a better value at the price. Per garment 75c

A PLAIN TAILORED NIGHT DRESS, made of a very heavy, fleecy flannelette, is to be had in white only. It is finished with braids and has a patch pocket. Another line is finished with embroidery. Per garment $1.50

FLANNELETTE PYJAMAS are to be had in a variety of fancy stripes. They are made of heavy flannelette and trimmed with braids. Sizes 24 to 42. Per suit $2.75

Wool Garments for Tiny Folks

MOTHERS who are looking for warm and inexpensive garments that will add to the comfort of their little pets, will be delighted with the showing of knitted overalls, gaiters, booties, etc., that is now to be seen in the children's department on the first floor on the View street side.

Practically everything that you can desire to make baby comfortable is to be seen in this department and we invite you to examine the various lines at your leisure.

WHITE WOOL OVERALLS, well knitted, neat in appearance and very serviceable; range in price from $1.50 each down to 50c

WHITE WOOL GAITERS, come at prices varying from 75c a pair down to 25c

CLOTH GAITERS are to be had in colors white, cardinal, navy and brown. They are well made and are wonderfully warm and serviceable. Prices start as low as 25c and range up to 75c

WOOL MITTS are to be had as low as 15c a pair, but there are better qualities to be had. However, the best will cost you only 50c

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, Tuesday, November 15, 1887.

In the years 1883 to 1887, September to August, the rainfall in Victoria was 23.49 inches, 28.14, 27.59, 34.11, and in New Westminster 60.89 inches, 49.60, 55.79, 71.60.

In Victoria one day each in 1884 and 1887 the temperature rose to 86 degrees. The lowest recorded was 5 degrees above zero. New Westminster went down to 7 below zero and rose to 92 above.

An attempt in London to prohibit street meetings by proclamation to-day resulted in street riots in Trafalgar square.

Mr. G. W. Howay, of New Westminster, headed the list at the entrance examinations for law students at Dalhousie college.

If Mr. Redfern and Mr. Lange would set their clocks by standard time the proposed reform would be accomplished. The proposed change would not require any legislation by the council.

Mr. C. N. Gowen, a young man who has grown up in our midst, is a candidate for assistant engineer.

Mr. William Wilson, of A. & W. Wilson, who has been confined to his room for some time, is now convalescent.

Mrs. Moresby was a passenger from the mainland this morning by the Yosemite.

W. F. Archibald, manager of the C. P. R. telegraph office here, was married to-day to Mrs. Carrie E. Robertson, a well known and highly esteemed lady, also of Victoria.

Pan-Hellenic Union Meets.—On Tuesday evening the local branch of the Pan-Hellenic Union met, D. K. Chungrenas presiding. Owing to the resignation of Mr. Bancroft, Mr. Kokotronis was appointed secretary-treasurer for the society.

Walter Noble's Death.—Circumstances surrounding the death of Walter Noble aged five years, were given at the inquest yesterday afternoon by B. Tablin, who was an eye-witness of the fatality. He informed the coroner's jury that the lad in attempting to jump from the wagon on which he was riding did not jump clear, his clothing catching on a projecting bolt. Through this cause his body was pulled round by the wheel and the injuries from which he died sustained. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Sacred Concert.—An especially attractive programme is being arranged for the Sacred Concert in the Victoria theatre on Sunday evening next. Benedict Bantley's orchestra has been engaged to play the musical items, and Mme. Marie Wood to sing two solos. An interesting feature will be the address by the Rev. Sidney Lindridge, organizer of these concerts; the subject will be "The Passing of Orthodox Christianity and the Coming Religion"—a few moments of free inquiry into the great religious questions of the day. Full details of the programme will be given in to-morrow's issue.

Daughters of Scotland to Meet.—The local branch of the Daughters of Scotland will hold their regular monthly social and dance this evening at the Foresters' hall, at 8.30. Miss Angus' orchestra having been engaged to provide the music.

Moral Reform.—The usual weekly prayer meeting at the First Baptist church last evening was presided over by Mrs. William Grant, the subject of the evening being temperance and moral reform work. Mrs. Flett, matron of the W. C. T. U. home for women, Pembroke street, gave a talk on the work being done there, another interesting speaker being Miss Copeland, whose work in connection with the Men's Mission, Store street, is well known to all Victorians. Mrs. Spofford, provincial vice-president of the W. C. T. U., also gave an interesting talk on the subject of temperance. Rev. J. B. Warlick closing the meeting with a few remarks relevant to the subjects discussed. Mrs. Grogan gave a few vocal selections during the evening.

AT OUTER WHARF.

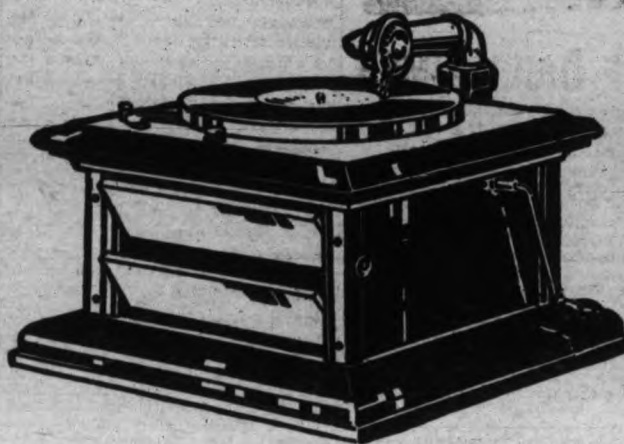

Miserable Condition of Ontario Street End in Bad Weather.

The attention of the city engineering department should be called to the condition of the end of Ontario street near the B. C. Electric Railway waiting room. It is the subject of comment from passengers who arrive at the wharf, whose first impressions of the city are thus very unfavorable.

Now that the rainy season has set in, the condition of the street after a wet night is exceptionally bad, particularly as there are no crossings. Passengers of the Makura on Tuesday were heard to make very unfavorable comments on the subject, the cause of which could be easily remedied for the present by a few crossings, and a sidewalk on the north side round to Dalhousie road. These simple improvements would afford a great benefit to the public and steamer passengers.

BUT ESPECIALLY GOOD FOR CHRISTMAS

The "Eclipse"

The New Style, Remarkable Columbia Hornless Graphophone

Selling at Only $35

This new COLUMBIA HORNLESS GRAPHOPHONE has arrived just in time for the Christmas trade, and it certainly is a beauty. Note the two shutters controlling the tone chamber in the illustration. This is a new improvement and, under test, has proved to be wonderfully satisfactory. You simply turn a button attached to the side of the sound box and the shutters turn as you desire, regulating the volume just as required.

In every particular this new instrument fulfills the requirements of the high grade graphophone. Place your favorite records on its turntable and listen to the rich, full, well-sustained tones that pour through those two shutters. Those who already have high priced graphophones are surprised that such a machine as this "Eclipse" can be sold for only $35.

Come in to-day and let us demonstrate the "Eclipse." As a companion this winter it will do more to please and entertain you than anything else you have ever enjoyed. It will cheer you up and assist you to keep in touch with the refining influence of the world's best music.

Overland

MODEL 69T FULLY EQUIPPED

It only proves the ability of this most powerful and efficient automobile factory.

Here we can but call your attention to the bare facts. This is the car—a big powerful, beautiful, spacious, comfortable, selfstarting, thirty horse-power, five-passenger touring car—fully equipped—all ready for day or night, rain or shine service. Made of the best materials on the market, by the most skilled men known to the trade, and in the most efficient automobile shops in America. And the price is but $1,500.

This is the automobile industry's record value. Come in and see this car of extraordinary value—take a ride in it and be convinced. We can show it to you to-day.

This car, at this price, smashes all previous records. It even totally eclipses 1912 Overland values, which a year ago baffled the world. 40,000 Overlands will be made in 1913. This enormous jump in production makes possible this new car at this new price. As the production goes up, prices come down, as has been shown each preceding year. In this age of rapid progress it is sometimes difficult to grasp the full significance of an important, progressive manufacturing step, such as this car exemplifies. But when you sum up the extraordinary, cold dollar-for-dollar value which this car offers, as compared to any and all competing motor car values, the giant economical manufacturing strength of the huge Overland plants is realized and recognized.

JAPANESE KNIFE ON PANAMA MARU

FIERCE STRUGGLE IN STOCKHOLD OF LINER

Fought as Vessel Was Coming Up Straits—Fear One Combatant May Die

Deep down in the bowels of the ship and in the glare of the open furnace two sons of Japan engaged in a fierce struggle aboard the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Panama Maru, Capt. Kanao, as she was steaming up the Straits at an early hour this morning, and in the duel one of the participants was stabbed in the left lung and when the steamship arrived here he was in a precarious condition. Grave doubts were held out for his recovery.

Only two other Japanese witnessed the struggle and they are unable to give any cause for the combat. At about 1.30 o'clock this morning, as the engines were turning over in dull monotony, the firemen shovelling the coal from the bunkers into the furnaces and everything else aboard the ship was going on in the usual manner, an officer made his way from the engine room into the stockhold. Presently one of the firemen brandished a knife, the blade of it glistering in the glare of the fire. He charged the officer, and after a fierce struggle the knife was thrust into the breast of the officer.

The injured man had to be assisted from the stockhold and was immediately given medical attention by the ship's surgeon. An examination of the injury showed that the knife had pierced the left lung and the man was evidently in great pain. It is doubtful if he will recover. The Japanese who committed the deed was placed in irons.

Try Case in Tacoma. As the ship had not entered the quarantine station before the accident happened, and as Tacoma is the home port of the Osaka boats on this side of the Pacific, it has been arranged to have the case tried at Tacoma upon the ship's arrival. If the injured man succumbs a charge of murder will be brought against the fireman. It is understood that the evidence of the witnesses of the crime and probably that of the participants, providing the injured man does not die, will be taken upon the arrival of the Panama Maru at Tacoma.

To-day it was impossible to ascertain the motive of the crime.

FRISCO'S CHARTERS.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15.—The British steamer Rothley has been chartered by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., for lumber from the Sound to Australia at $8. She will carry a cargo of steel rails from Cape Breton to British Columbia. The Rothley is under time charter to Andrew Weir & Co., at $6, and this present fixture is for but a single trip.

The British steamer Strathairn, whose charter was reported, gets a rate of $66 for barley from this port to the United Kingdom, with the option of wheat from the north at $18.3d. She will take coal in Australia for South America and come up here in ballast.

The Norwegian steamer Terrier, under charter for coal from Norfolk to this port, reached her loading port yesterday. She and the American steamer Georgian are the only two vessels to load government coal for this port.

Bunkers at the navy station here, as well as those at Bremerton, are reported filled, and it is not likely that the government will charter any more steamers for this business for the next six months.

The local agent of the Maple Leaf Line, says the British steamer Santa Rosalia, now en route from New York to Victoria, has been equipped with a Marconi wireless system.

RICH SHIPMENT ON INCOMING EMPRESS

White Liner Reports Off Coast
—Puebla Makes Fast
Trip North

Early to-morrow morning R. M. S. Empress of India, Capt. Beetham, will be at William Head, and it is expected she will berth at the outer dock about 8 o'clock. Wireless messages were received from the master of the white liner this morning and he reported that he would bring the India into the quarantine station at daylight in the morning. The Empress has been driven hard across the Pacific, and is making fine time despite the bad weather which is prevailing.

The Empress is coming with a cargo of 2,000 tons of merchandise, and among it is a shipment of silk worth over a million dollars. All cargo space on the India for her next outward voyage has been reserved and offers of freight have been refused. A fair list of passengers is being brought in by the Indian. There are not many in the saloon, but several hundred Orientals are coming as steerage.

Few Passengers on Puebla. Helped up the coast by the strong southwest winds the Pacific Coast steamship City of Puebla, Capt. Paulsen, made a fast passage from San Francisco and arrived in port at 8 o'clock last night. The wind blew strongly at times and a heavy sea was running during the greater part of the trip.

The Puebla brought north the lightest passenger list of the season. All told she had but 43 passengers, which is about one-third of her complement. Those who disembarked at this port were as follows: Mrs. K. Connors, Beryl Connors, C. H. Delahay, L. N. Dibert, Ellen Giberson, Hy. Junke, H. Lancaster, H. Lowe, S. Mann, J. Rush-ton and M. Wacławinck.

ARCHER OUT ELEVEN DAYS; STILL NO WORD

Olympia, Wash., Nov. 15.—No word has been received from the barquentine Archer, which is now out 11 days from the Sound for San Francisco, and in the face of the heavy storms which have swept the coast for the past two weeks, it is feared that the vessel has met disaster. The report has reached here that the vessel has been wrecked, but nothing authentic has been heard. If the vessel has met with only engine trouble, she may yet reach port under sail.

LIGHTSHIP, LEAKING, RETURNED TO PORT

Quadra Towing Vessel Back—
Has Only Been at Her Moorings Two Days

Leaks have again been discovered in the old Sandheads lightship. The craft is now on her way back to Victoria for examination in tow of the steamer Quadra, Capt. Macpherson, of the marine department. A steamer passing the lightship yesterday morning took a message from the men on the lightship stating that there was three feet of water in her hold. The Quadra, which had only returned to port from towing her to her old moorings, was again dispatched to bring her back to port.

Several months ago the lightship was brought here to undergo repairs. Some leaks had been discovered and it was decided to recaulk and repaint her. This was done by the B. C. Marine railway, and for some time she lay at the marine department's dock having a diaphone fog alarm installed on her. It is not known whether the heavy weather of the past few days caused her seams to open, or what was the cause of her taking in water. The Quadra is expected to arrive with her some time to-day and an examination will be at once conducted.

A combined gas-light and bell buoy has been established at the Sandheads by the Quadra to replace the lightship.

ANY ENGINE FOR LAUNCHES.

Tender for the two new gasoline launches to be used in the fishery patrol service must be in by Wednesday next, November 20. The boats are to be 45 feet in length and must be ready by March of next year. An announcement has been made that any engine of the same rating as the Standard engine may be installed in the launches. The specifications called for Standard engines, but the government has decided upon a change.

PASSES THROUGH A CYCLONE CROSSING

PANAMA MARU ALTERED
COURSE TWICE; HOVE TO

Great Waves Buffeted Her
About—Was in Gale Off
This Coast

Out of the sixteen days the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Panama Maru, Capt. Kanao, was at sea on her voyage from Yokohama, this was one fine day was experienced. The steamship came into port early this morning, reporting one of the roughest trips any of the trans-Pacific steamships have logged so far this season. The Panama was in two terrible storms, one just after leaving Yokohama, in which she had to be hove to, and the other when she was nearing this coast.

The night after the steamship sailed from the Japanese port she ran into a cyclone. For some hours she battled against the storm, but after she had worked her way into the centre of it, Capt. Kanao was forced to alter his course to the eastward. The wind, which was blowing a whole gale, shifted again, and the Panama was set on a course dead south. After a time the Panama had to be hove to with her nose held into the gigantic seas. For four hours she rolled about, and then as the storm blew passed, she ran back to her regular course.

Continuous Gales. The Panama was in for a severe dusting all the way across. During the eight days following the cyclone she encountered a succession of gales from all points of the compass. The sea was very high, and combers kept constantly breaking over the steamship's bow.

Last Friday the Panama worked her way into another fierce storm. The wind was from the northwest, and for four days it blew without any signs of abating. The progress of the steamship was very slow, the high head seas holding her back. Officers on the Panama say that the wind was blowing close to 60 miles an hour.

The Panama brought in from the Orient as passengers for Victoria 36 Chinese and 11 Japanese. For the United States she has seven saloon passengers and 32 Japanese steerage. In her cargo was a shipment of 1,500 bales of silk valued at $750,000. Altogether she has 5,570 tons of cargo, of which 470 is being discharged at this port. She has a large consignment of Japanese oranges aboard.

HEAR WHISTLE OF SHIP THAT WAS LOST; REAL MARINE GHOST

Astoria, Ore., Nov. 15.—A marine ghost has invaded the waters of the bay and coast. The whistle of the steamship Santa Rosa, lost a year and a half ago on Point Arguello, and known for twenty years to all local mariners as they know the voices of their own children, has been heard echoing in the midnight darkness off the beach where the twisted frames of the Santa Rosa lies and in other places.

Captain Farla, formerly commander of the Santa Rosa, now captain of the Curacao, was the first to report the phenomenon. Other skippers admitted having heard it.

Captain Thomas, Anderson, marine lookout at Point Lobos before the Santa Rosa first passed through the gate, nearly fell from his chair Wednesday afternoon as the familiar note boomed out. He searched the water for the wreath of the Santa Rosa but only noted a puff of steam from the Harvard as she ploughed through the gate for Los Angeles. Again the Santa Rosa whistle bellowed and Captain Anderson understood.

Superintendent of the Harvard, had bought the Santa Rosa's whistle at a salvage sale and was enjoying himself at the expense of the nerves of his fellow mariners.

Bound for Prince Rupert and Skagway the C. P. R. steamer Princess Mary, Capt. McLeod, will leave port to-night. She is taking out a large number of passengers.

With water leaking into her at the rate of 10 inches an hour, the steam schooner Washington arrived at Portland Tuesday night from Coos Bay and she will be lifted for repairs to-morrow. Her pumps were going throughout the passage to keep her free of water. She managed to make the run from Marshfield to the Columbia river in 12 hours, a stiff southerly wind assisting in driving her along. The Washington struck on Coos Bay bar October 31 while crossing out on route to San Francisco. The Washington has had a checkered career, and as many mishaps as any vessel that ever came into the Columbia river. She is the craft that Captain "Buck" Bailey, of the tug Tatoosh, saved from drifting on the rocks near Cape Disappointment a year ago.

Five Acre Ranches

SEATON PARK, ALBERNI.

R. V. Winch & Co., of Victoria, this week announce that they have placed "Seaton Park" on the market, and that this desirable subdivision will be sold in five-acre blocks. This land is located on the Spruce Lake road, and there is a frontage on the Bonanza River. The point where this frontage comes in is one of the finest on the river, and the surroundings are picturesque to a degree. The land is largely older bottom, and there is a good chance for one of those small ranches that are so much in demand in the district just now. The five acres is quite enough to enable a man to have all that is required in the way of a garden, poultry run, fruit trees, etc., and at the same time to be within reaching distance of the City of Alberni. The country immediately surrounding Seaton Park is one of the best for both fishing and hunting, and some of the finest catches of trout taken in the district have been from the river along the side of the park. The land is reached from Alberni by some four miles of one of the best roads to be found in the district. This road will be the one to be extended to Long Beach in time, and then the property will be on the main trunk road of this part of the Island. Seaton Park should be considered a favorite with those who wish to live a little way out of town, and at the same time be within reasonable distance of the business centre of the district.—Alberni Advocate, 1st November, 1912.

OFFICERS WASHED OUT OF THEIR ROOMS

Chicago Maru Has Trying
Voyage to Orient—Doors
Broken—Cabins Flooded

Stateroom doors battered in, cabins flooded and officers washed out of their bunks were some of the incidents which figured in the passage of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Chicago Maru, Capt. Goto, from this port to Yokohama. Capt. Kanao, of the steamship Panama Maru, which came into port this morning, said that when about two days out from Yokohama he received a wireless from Capt. Goto telling of the awful time he had crossing the Pacific.

Capt. Goto in his wireless said that the weather had been bad throughout the trip, but when nearing the coast of Japan he fell in with a fierce storm. There was a high beam sea running and several waves swept over the port side smashing the doors of the wire-rooms. Both cabins were flooded, and the officers, who were asleep, were lifted from their bunks and landed nicely on the deck. Several other cabins were flooded and considerable damage was done to the ship's upperworks.

The Chicago Maru was three days behind when spoken by the Panama Maru. She left here on October 15 with a full cargo.

Officers of the Panama say that a number of other steamships were delayed in reaching Yokohama from different parts of the globe owing to the severe weather in the Pacific.

LARGEST SAILER AT ASTORIA.

Astoria, Ore., Nov. 15.—The largest sailing vessel afloat arrived off the mouth of the river yesterday morning, took Pilot Staples on board and came in on yesterday afternoon's tide. It is the five-masted German barque R. C. Rickmers, Capt. H. Schwetmann, and comes from Mito, Japan, under charter to Kerr, Gifford & Co. to load grain.

PLASTER STIFF FINE AGAINST LOCAL BOAT

Steamer Gray Has to Pay Over to U. S. Customs—Had Incomplete Manifest

For landing two harpoons, two nautical instruments, one drum of paint at Tacoma without having them on the manifest and without obtaining a permit from the customs authorities, a fine of $400 has been plastered against the steamer Gray, Capt. Shadforth, of the Canadian North Pacific Fisheries Company. The Port Townsend custom officials, who have been considering the charges, decided to levy a fine of $400 against the steamer.

In addition to the $400, another fine of $123.35, the appraised value of the articles landed, was assessed. The owners of the vessel disputed the amount of the fine, and have appealed to the department at Washington for relief, claiming that the articles were intended for the whaling station at Bay City on Gray's Harbor, but through mistake were landed at Tacoma, to be expressed to that station, and that there was no intent to violate the law.

It is very seldom that the Canadian vessels are caught in this manner, but when they are they generally run up against a pretty stiff penalty.

Card Prizes in China that Combine Beauty and Utility

¶ The thousands of pieces of china—"odd bits" we call them, to distinguish between china sold in sets and sold by single item—which form a conspicuous part of our stock, require no mental gymnastics to be considered appropriate prizes for the ladies at euchre or whist.

¶ They combine a beauty which is dearly loved by every woman with a usefulness that is her joy to exploit on every occasion.

¶ Your list of prizes should be exclusively china bits if you would excite spirited competition in the contest.

¶ Try it.

In Anticipation of Jack Frost's Coming

¶ If you would save your choice plants—take them indoors before Jack Frost nips them.

¶ Of course it means that you will need a new jardiniere or two—some plants are in bigger pots and there are new plants to provide for.

¶ Jardinieres of the artistic sort are so cheap nowadays that no one thinks of allowing ugly pots to remain exposed.

¶ You'll be surprised at some of this season's offerings when you come in—all because we made some shrewd deals in mid-summer.

¶ The goods are now here.

NEW BRASS BEDS

In anticipation of the changes you are making this fall, now is a splendid time to discuss the matter of Brass Beds and the Iron and Wooden Beds you intend to use either in your own sleeping room or the spare rooms of your home. We don't know that we have anything special to say of our new lines of Brass Beds other than that they are represented by the VERY BEST THAT IT IS POSSIBLE FOR BRASS WORKERS TO MAKE. In selecting our Brass Beds we got away from garishness as far as possible. We believe most people like simplicity, and where richness is desired simplicity is its best aid. This is true of anything—in a greater degree, however, with Brass Beds.

ROTHUS TOO CLEVER FOR M'KAY— VANCOUVER CARRIES OFF HONORS

Splendid Boxing Tournery Held Under the Auspices of the J. B. A. A.—Defeat of McKay a Big Surprise—Plenty of Action at Last Night's Bouts

Victoria's amateur ring idol, Scotty McKay, the hard-hitting J. B. A. A. lightweight, was soundly beaten by Clarence Rothus, Pacific Coast lightweight champion, of Seattle, in an extra round at the J. B. A. A. boxing tournament last night. The bout was the feature event of the best boxing card that has ever been pulled off in Victoria, a crowded house greeting the athletes, an excellent testimonial of Victoria as a boxing centre. The defeat of McKay, while unexpected locally, was the scene of an unusual demonstration by a number of Seattle rooters who had accompanied their representatives to the Capital. Vancouver carried off the majority of the Inter-City bouts, Victoria capturing two, while Seattle got away with the tit-bit of the evening. The fighting was hard and clean, the speed and action of the boxers keeping the house on its toes throughout.

Seattle Boy Too Clever. To be fair to McKay, it may be said that he was outwitted six pounds by Rothus, and was also at a disadvantage because of the superior height and reach of the Seattle champion. The latter, however, gave a finished exhibition and captured the bout on his clean hitting. Time and again he scored on the local Scot without getting a return and he left the ring with hardly a scratch, while the local star was badly used up. Lack of condition also told on McKay, for while Rothus was able to survive the terrific blows he received in the two opening rounds, McKay appeared to fade as the bout progressed. He tried hard to land his sleep producer and in the third round counted with a swinging right that had Rothus star gazing. The latter's ability to cover and stall enabled him to weather the rough spots, McKay being slow to follow up his advantage.

Rothus Had the Class. Not until the third round did Rothus open up and demonstrate his right to the title of champion. In the opening periods he was content to out-point McKay and keep out of harm's way. Repeatedly McKay would rush in, only to find his man had slipped to the other corner of the ring. The Seattle boy was a panther on his feet and not only that, his lightning-like left, followed with a right cross to the jaw, worked havoc with McKay's defence. The latter was pitted against the best boxer seen in a local ring for some time and that he did not land oftener is no fault of Scotty's. In the third round Rothus started to mix matters at close range and it was at this style that McKay scored high, his terrific body blows soon forcing Rothus to break ground. McKay stalled a couple of times, feigning weakness to lead Rothus to drop his guard. The single occasion that he succeeded in this strategy almost brought home the bacon, Rothus having stalled for the remainder of the round.

Police Stopped Bout. McKay was made a chopping block of in the extra round, Rothus being in much better condition and following the local crack round the ring. McKay was in bad shape several times, the Seattle boy keeping up a fusillade of straight pokes, varied with an occasional uppercut, that had McKay swaying for the better part of the round. Rothus looked an easy winner when the police stopped the bout to save Scotty from further punishment, the local boy having toppled over from a terrific downward right swing that landed flush on the jaw. The crowd enthused mightily at the finish, Seattle having numerous supporters in the house.

SOCCER BATTLES OF THE WEEK END FEATURE SECOND DIVISION

Senior Title is Beyond Doubt, Though the Intermediate Clubs Have a Tough Fight in Prospect—To-morrow's Schedule of Games and Selection of Teams

Victoria Wests should lengthen their lead in the senior division to-morrow, they meeting the lowly J. B. A. A. eleven at Oak Bay grounds, while the Thistles and Sons of England eleven are battling at the Royal Athletic Park. The latter game is the feature contest of the week, and will attract a good crowd. In the second division there should be no change in the leaders. The West Enders and North Wards meet the Navy-Regiment and Fifth Regiment teams respectively. The J. B. A. A.-Corona contest will be interesting as will the Y. M. C. A.-Foster games, both of these contests being staged on the Beacon Hill grounds.

The matches set for Saturday by the Victoria and District Association last evening follow:

Senior.
J. B. A. A. vs. Victoria West, Oak Bay grounds. Referee not selected.
Thistles vs. Sons of England, Royal Athletic park. Referee, W. Wilson.

Intermediate.
Victoria West vs. Navy-Regiment, Macaulay Point grounds. Referee, S. Thorne.

Urquhart Gets in Strong. Happy Urquhart got in strong with the local fans by his clean-cut victory over Clarence Dixon, the Seattle Bear Cat. Urquhart was opposed to a bunch of red pepper who continued to wade through a score of punches. The J. B. A. A. has a find in Urquhart, who is a splendid boxer and who possesses a good wallop in addition. Both boys were batters and mixed things up pretty lively in the opening round. Urquhart soon fathomed Dixon's defence and for the remaining two rounds hit his man at will. He had Dixon wandering in the third and the latter was exceedingly lucky to last, the bell saving him from the count. It was a lively go and pleased all.

Cott Wins Again. Victoria's second pugilistic win came when Bernal Cott, the J. B. A. A.'s good middleweight, outpointed Phil May, a husky gent from Vancouver, who is a second Al Kaufman in looks and action. It was Cott's bout all the way, and May never landed a clean blow to the face throughout the entire fight. Cott refused to claim a foul in the second round, and gamely continued, beating his man in the final session, when he scored a clean knockdown. Frank Barrieau, the Canadian champion, made a splendid impression, forcing Wheeler's seconds to leave a towel into the ring after two minutes fighting. Barrieau felled his man three times in the first minute and was easily the class of the heavies who performed. Billie and A. Davies, of the J. B. A. A., went on in a boxing exhibition that pleased the fans, the pair showing clever boxing with plenty of good stiff wallops intermingled. Harry Willis, by scoring a knockdown in the last round, won the decision from Percy Grove. The latter was content to outpoint his man at long range, but could not evade one of Willis' swings that copped the contest.

Clements Bout a Corker. Stanley Clements, of Vancouver, won a slashing bout from Jack Clements, of the J. B. A. A. The local boy was swamped with the fierceness of the Vancouver boxer's attack and was beaten on points. It was a glorious battle all the way, the claret flowing freely, with the mainland boy on top because of his superior boxing and aggressive leading. Art Fox won a decidedly tame event from Scott Cropper in an extra round. Fox did all the leading, while Cropper had a shade the better of the boxing. The latter's sluggishness cost him the bout, as a little "pep" in the third round would not have made it necessary for him to go another session. Fox's attack in the final round gave him the decision.

Hatch's Easy Victory. Vancouver scored in the wrestling when Al Hatch threw Jack Middleton, of the J. B. A. A. twice in decisive style. Hatch was immensely superior to the local boy and was on top throughout, his rapid fire wrestling taking all the steam out of Middleton, who was an easy victim. Tait and Hardwick, two J. B. A. A. boys, put on an exhibition in which the pair gave a nice display. No decision was given. During the preliminaries Joe Bayley and Pat Scott were introduced to the crowd, also Chet McIntyre and Tom Burrows. The latter is the champion club swinger of the world, who plans to give an exhibition here.

The officials were: Referee for boxing, Al Jeffs; judge for wrestling, K. Wigglesworth; boxing judges, V. K. Gray and B. McCleave; announcer, C. Connors; timekeepers, L. Oliver and Joe Fox.

The meetings of the association will in future be held on Wednesday evenings.

ROSTER OF TEAMS.

BARNARD CUP MATCH BILLED AT OAK BAY

Wanderers and Oak Bay Clubs Will Meet To-morrow—Changes Necessary

Wanderers and Oak Bay Rugby clubs will re-open the Barnard cup series at Oak Bay to-morrow afternoon, the game being called for 3 o'clock. Owing to the McKenzie cup struggles, it was found necessary to make some changes in the Barnard Cup schedule, the withdrawal of the Surveys complicating matters also. The Rugby Union will issue a new schedule in a few days for the balance of the season.

Wanderers' Selection.
The Wanderers Rugby football club has two games for Saturday, the first team against Oak Bay in a Barnard Cup league fixture, and the second team against University school. The latter game will be played at the University grounds and the former at Oak Bay. The following are the Wanderers' teams: First: Fullback, Daniels; three-quarters, Day Haydn and the two Grants; halves, Chapman and Hudson; forwards, Garstair, Ackland, Willis, Dennison, Reid, Chalk, Welsh and Brown. Second: Fullback, Morgan; three-quarters, Holmes, Currie, Rutherford and Bush; halves, Richardson and De Norman (capt.); forwards, Chasey, Rothenam, Stork, Leet, Bann, Russell, Collinson and Fawcett. Car leaves for the University grounds from Government and Douglas streets at 1.25 o'clock.

Oak Bay Rugby Team.
The Oak Bay Rugby team will be picked from the following players: K. MacDonald, F. Nason, G. Dixon, R. Johnson, C. Tuohy, F. Schneider, A. Williams, A. McInnes, Yates, Houson, Scott, Heinikey, L. Sweeney, F.

Sweeney, C. Sedger, E. Brynjolfsson, R. McInnes, E. MacDonald, G. Campbell. All players are requested to be on the ground at 2.30 p. m. as the game starts at 2.45 p. m. sharp.

ANOTHER LIPTON CUP.

Sir Thomas Will Donate International Challenge Trophy to Seattle Yacht Club.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 15.—Sir Thomas Lipton announced at the conclusion of a joint entertainment in his honor by the Seattle Press Club that he would give to the Seattle Yacht Club a perpetual international challenge cup to be raced for the first time on Puget Sound next year. The cup, of gold and silver, will be made in London and sent to the Seattle Yacht Club, which will defend it against the Canadians. Sir Thomas will leave to-morrow for San Francisco where he will discuss the yachting programme of the Panama Pacific exposition.

CITY HOCKEY LEAGUE TO MEET.

A meeting of the City Amateur Hockey League will be held at the Y. M. C. A. to-night, when the officers will be elected and teams admitted. Three teams have made out applications, but it is possible that five or six clubs will secure franchises.

WANT A GAME.

Appleby's all-star basketball team has re-organized, it is announced, and is open to challenges from any team in the province. All last season's players are back, A. MacGregor, Baines, Whyte, Dakers, D. Campbell, Brynjolfsson and J. Baker.

McFARLAND MATCHED.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Packer McFarland was matched to box a ten-round bout with Harry Donahue, of Pekin, Ill., at Indianapolis on the night of November 27. The fighters will weigh in at 135 pounds at 3 o'clock or 136 pounds at 4 o'clock.

GIANTS' IRON MAN IS COMING

Joe McGinnity Has Purchased the Tacoma Club—Brown Gets a New Backstop—News of Minor League Session

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 15.—The Northwestern circuit was in evidence to-day at the session of the minor leagues. The chief deal, however, was the sale of the Tacoma club to Joe McGinnity, the former Giant star, who last year managed Newark in the International League.

Catcher Fagon Burch was practically sold to the Beaumont club in the Texas League.

Manager Brown, of Vancouver, was another purchaser, having secured

Catcher Konnick, of Dayton, "in the Central League."

Columbus, Ohio, was selected as the 1912 meeting place of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues at the 11th annual session here yesterday.

Complaint was made against allowing the Northwestern League to maintain a salary limit $1,000 above that of the other leagues in Class "B", but there was no action taken by the association at the morning or afternoon session.

CURTAINS FOR N. L. U.

The National Lacrosse Union will go out of business next year, according to the Toronto Telegram, which goes on to say that the N. L. U. consists largely of Cornwall Colts, and even Joe Lally will tell you that by the time Westminster get through with them there wasn't much to talk about.

'PEG RUNNERS REWARDED.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 15.—Diplomas and medals have arrived in Winnipeg from Sweden for Army Howard and Joe Keeger, the fast middle distance runners, who were on the Olympic team. The prizes will be given to the men to-night.

Mystery of the Masked Golfer

New York, Nov. 15.—Golfers at the Van Cortlandt park links have remarked this week the presence there of a mysterious golfer who wears a black mask while playing his play declare that they have watched his drives is remarkable, enabling him to cover the rather hard course at a score close to Bogle with apparent ease. It was declared today that the mysterious visitor is an English expert, who has just come to this country on a wager of $25,000 to break the records of the six best courses in the United States—and afterward, on a wager of $5,000, to beat the American amateur champion in a match game. The identity of the masked golfer is kept in obscurity, but it is said that his name is familiar in England and this country. The "black masker" yesterday took 71 strokes to play the 18 holes at Van Cortlandt. This is one stroke better than the record. He made one drive nearly 300 yards, better than the world's record.

MEN! SEEN THE SATURDAY EVENING POST THIS WEEK?

CLASS "B" CLUBS OBJECT TO NORTHWESTERN BEING FAVORED

Trouble Likely Because of Exemption of Jones' League.—Ed. Watkins "Beats Up" Cal. Ewing—Gipe and Barry Are Grabbed by Owner Dugdale, of Seattle

Seattle, Nov. 15.—Pitcher Gipe, whose release Dugdale bought from Connie Mack, was with Vernon a part of the season last year, and was grabbed by Philadelphia. He needs more work than Connie Mack can afford to give him. Barry, the other pitcher Dugdale got from Mack, is a former Santa Clara College player, and has shown considerable ability.

The report that Ben Hunt, the long left-hander of Tacoma, was going to the Chicago White Sox, was a mistake. The blunder was made by the board of arbitration in making the announcement. Hunt goes to the St. Louis Americans, and will work under George Stovall.

Watkins the Winner.
It is reported from Milwaukee that Ed. Watkins, the red-haired Welsh man who owns the Tacoma club, and Cal Ewing, the thirsty president of the San Francisco club, engaged in an impromptu boxing match in the bear city, and that Watkins finished in front. If the two men ever did clash, the writer would have a little bet on Watkins to win on his superior condition.

Disagree Over Suit.
Dissension arose among the class "B" leagues yesterday over the determination at the national association meeting yesterday that the Northwestern League may maintain a salary limit of $1,000 more than the rest of the leagues in the class. Magnates of other class "B" leagues maintain that this gives one of their number a class "A" rating except for waivers and release rules and that this will exhaust their opportunity for players.

Will Meet in COLUMBUS NEXT YEAR

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 15.—Columbus, Ohio, was selected as the next place of meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs. A committee was appointed to meet the National Commission to adjust the National agreement entered into last July to suit conditions found to exist in the National Association.

As will be remembered Guy Nichols was engaged some years ago by the Detroit Boat Club, and they improved greatly after that.

The way things look now, and judging from certain remarks dropped by Mr. Sandy Cameron, it looks as if Ottawa would beat Toronto to the acquisition of Mr. Molmans' services.

Belgian Coach Praises Dominion's Oarsmen As Best in the World.

Molmans, the stroke of the great Belgian eight-oared crew, which has made such a name for itself at Henley, is in Montreal.

He is at present employed in a well-known manufacturing establishment, but is considering certain propositions made to him by Toronto and Ottawa rowing organizations.

He claims that there is material in Canada, which is far superior to any rowing material he has ever met with, and that the only thing necessary is to have their stroke properly developed.

MODEL 1912 20 GAUGE TAKE-DOWN
Hammerless Repeating Shotgun

The lightest, strongest and handsomest repeating shotgun made. It weighs only 5 1/2 pounds, yet, all metal parts being made throughout of Nickel Steel, it has wonderful strength. In grace of outline and refinement of detail and finish, it is unsurpassed by repeating guns of other makes. It is exceedingly simple to load, unload and take down, and shoots with the strength and accuracy for which Winchester guns are noted.

BAYLEY-HYLAND BOU IS OFF

Morris Condon stated yesterday to the Times that he would refuse to place any side bet for a fight between Hyland and Bayley, at Calgary unless he receives a $2,000 guarantee with round trip tickets for three. Burns cannot bully me into signing for a bout with Hyland until he guarantees Bayley enough to make the fight worth while. Bayley will leave next Friday to fight at Seattle, and on November 20, at Prince Rupert with Sammy Good. These are the only bouts for which he has signed at the present.

LITTLE BITS OF SPORT GOSSIP

Buck O'Brien, the Boston American pitcher, is vaudeville and seems to be making good. On his first appearance in Boston, Tris Speaker, and Joe Wood were among those present, and led in loud applause.

Connie Mack is credited by Helme Wagner with tipping the Red Sox off to the weak points of the Giants and telling the Bostonians how to meet the enemy. Wonder if Connie tipped them off that Snodgrass would drop that fly ball.

Incidentally, if Mack brags his pitching staff with youngsters to take the place of the old-timers who are going back, have a care about those Athletics for next season.

Fred Snodgrass says he was frozen stiff when he dropped the big ball. The general impression is that he was frozen before he tried to catch it.

The Red Sox gave Trainer "Alligator" Joe Quirk $500, and he deserved it. Joe is an old-time runner.

If Mrs. Britton were engaged in a controversy with Hugh Jennings instead of with Roger Bresnahan, the phunnyfellers would hasten to exclaim: "The Lady or the Tiger?"

The Berlin Stadium, where the Olympic games are to be held in 1916, will seat 17,000 people.

Billy Field, who is now claimed by the Toronto Tecumsehs, played with the Edmonton hockey team three years ago. He is fast, but that lets him out.

It is quite evident that the National Hockey Association has a hard row to hoe in Toronto. All the newspapers are sticking up for amateur hockey and the O. H. A. They will chant farewell to the professional stuff should the N. H. A. try to perpetrate that six-man stuff when the season opens.

John McGraw, manager of the Giants, has made such a hit in vaudeville that his engagement has been extended to a full season.

Rumors are floating about in Texas League circles that the Austin franchise is to be transferred to Oklahoma City.

AUSTRALIAN TENNIS PLAYERS RANK HIGH

Wilding Rates at No. 1 in List
Which Has Just Been Issued in London

The British Isles lawn tennis challengers will meet the Australian defenders for the Davis International Challenge Cup on the courts at Melbourne, Australia, on November 28, 29 and 30. It will be the eleventh challenge series for the world-famous trophy which was offered by Dwight L. Davis, an American, in 1900.

The British Isles team is composed of Charles P. Dixon, John C. Parke, F. G. Lowe and A. E. Beamish. Dixon will act as captain of the team, as he did in September, 1911, at the time the British Isles met the Americans on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club, New York. Following the internationals the team will make a tour through Australia and New Zealand, competing in specially arranged tournaments.

The rating of the leading Britons for the season, which has just been issued in London, does not favor a victory over the Australians led by Norman E. Brookes, who is considered the best player in the world. On the English ranking list Anthony F. Wilding, the great Australian who holds the all-England title, is placed at No. 1, with Dixon at No. 2. Then follow A. H. Lowe, Gore, Kingscote, Mavrogordato, Parke, F. G. Lowe, Barrett, Ritchie, Hillyard and Beamish.

This causes the four men of the English team to rate as No. 2, No. 7, No. 8 and No. 12, respectively.

THE REDUCTION OF PLAYERS IN RUGBY

Supporters Claim That Reduced Teams Open the Play

When the North Rugby Union of England severed its connection with the English Rugby Union and turned professional, the first steps taken were to reduce the number of players from fifteen to twelve. This was not altogether to save expenses, but to open up the game and make the play faster to enable the clubs to attract attendance against the faster soccer game. The union has never returned to the fifteen men, which is a good indication that the reduction must have improved the game.

The first radical change in Canadian Rugby came in the fall of 1892, when Osgoode Hall team, of Toronto, under the leadership of Captain Jimmy Smellie, broke away from the close play and formation of eight men in the scrum. That team won the Dominion championship, and did a great deal to better the game. From then on the play has become faster and improved yearly. The next move was the adoption of the "Burnside" rules which were followed by the present improved ones and the reduction of the number of players from fifteen a side to fourteen.

The many changes in the past few years has done away with a great deal of the rough play, and was the first means of sending the heavier and slow players to the dressing rooms for good, as it is now a case of speed and not "beef" as it was not so very long ago.

BOSS JOHNSON

Crack amateur lacrosse goaltender, who will turn professional if Victoria enters a team in the Coast League next summer.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Bees Get a Real Third-sacker.

Welcome news was wafted from Chicago last night when L. A. Wattlett, of the local ball club, wired that he had signed up Hunter Hill, of the Austin, Texas, League, to manage and fill in a third sack on the Bees' line-up. This is but one of the several changes necessary to bring the locals up to the North-western standard, and the club owners do not intend to rest until this has been accomplished. Several good outfielders who can peg a man out at the plate on a short sacrifice fly, together with a little more "pep" on the bags, and Victoria will be satisfied. A couple of twirlers are en route, and when Manager Hill gets into action, he should have little difficulty in patching up the local heaving brigade. Bobby Steele is sure of a trial, and if he is not considered ripe for Class "B," will be shipped to the Twilight League for a little schooling.

Defeat Will Do Scotty McKay Good.

It has been so long since Scotty McKay has been up against a real boxer that it was surprise as well as lack of condition that brought about his defeat at the hands of the Seattle ring star last night. McKay has been putting his men away in a couple of rounds for the past year or two, and when he could not put over the slumber poke against Rothus, he threw all caution to the winds and waded in after his man. The result was that Rothus picked him to pieces at long range, firing Scotty in the extra session and having the local crack at his mercy. The management of the J. B. A. A. should see that McKay is taken in hand and properly prepared for a feature bout, especially against such an opponent as Rothus. The latter is as clever a boy as ever donned the mitts, one who will yet be heard of in the pugilistic arena.

Patricks Will Ignore Lichtenhein and N. H. A.

Publicity is a real joy to some folks, and our old friend Samuel E. Lichtenhein, is again at his old tricks of pulling his name into print. He has written a six-page letter, full of alleged "dope" on the hockey situation, to Frank Patrick, the Vancouver Arena manager, and is waiting patiently to hear from the Coast League mogul so that he may have a chance of getting away with some more hot air. In this Mr. Lichtenhein will be sadly disappointed. The refusal of the National Hockey Association to deal with the coast clubs in the matter of a hockey commission and the observance of contracts has resulted in the decision of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association to wash its hands of the Eastern League altogether. Never again will they dicker for any players; they will simply send a man East to sign the players up. They intend to leave those who have signed contracts strictly alone, and will not tangle with those who jump Coast League contracts. In this they will be supported by the coast hockey fans who want hockey, but who will refuse to stand for the importation of a bunch of contract jumpers, men who have no interest in the game whatever, outside of their financial prospects.

Condon Will Appoint His Own Referee.

When Joe Bayley enters the ring at Seattle next Friday night against Eddie Shannon, he will have Jimmie Hewitt, the Vancouver sporting writer, as the third man on the canvas. Morris Condon is taking no chances, and rightly so, for there will be a lot of money up on the bout, even though Bayley easily outclasses Shannon as a fighter. The latter is a clever boxer and unless the Canadian champion can put him away, stands a splendid chance of outpointing Bayley in a short fight. Quite a number of Victoria sportsmen intend taking in the fight and the odds are two to one that Bayley wins, even that Joe scores a knock-out. With Hewitt as referee, the Victoria boy is sure to get a square deal.

CHALLENGE TO VICTORIA.

Intermediate Rugby Club of Vancouver Would Like to Arrange a Series.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 15.—Intermediate Rugby players of Vancouver are out with a challenge to an all-star Victoria team to play a series of home-and-home games for the provincial championship.

The local intermediate league officials claim that they have endeavored for some time past to organize a provincial league, embracing Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster, but that the Capital City clubs have ignored the communications forwarded to them.

If the Island footballers mean business, they can communicate with J. Stewart, secretary of the Vancouver Intermediate Rugby League, care of the Vancouver Y. M. C. A.

GIANTS' OFFICER RESIGNS.

New York, Nov. 15.—Joseph D. O'Brien, secretary of the New York National League Baseball Club, resigned to-day and J. W. McCutcheon, a director of the club, was elected to succeed him. E. N. Hempstead, son-in-law of John T. Brush, president of the club, was elected vice-president.

BENNY ERB CHOSEN.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—The selection committee of the California Rugby Union has named the following players as the all-Canadian team, and virtually the all-American Rugby team, to meet the Australian all-star Waratahs, Saturday, on California field, at Berkeley:

Fullback, Benny Erb, Stanford; left wing, M. A. Noble, Stanford; centre three-quarters, C. A. Allen, California; outside five, Charles Austin, Olympic club; inside five, P. Harrigan, Stanford.

LONGSHOT WON THE DERBY CUP.

London, Nov. 15.—The Derby cup, a handicap of £1,325 one-mile six furlongs, was won today by Aye Aye, by Flying Fox Columbian, 100 to 8; Wags, staffs was second, 100 to 7, Marcolica third, 100 to 7.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

Completely Removed Without One Moment's Pain

No longer need women suffer the terrible humiliation and embarrassment of a repulsive, hairy growth on the face, neck or hands, which gives the feminine face such a coarse, ugly, masculine and oftentimes positively repulsive appearance. For years I searched for a painless, simple and satisfactory way to remove superfluous hair from the skin, so that it need never return.

I tried everything and was completely discouraged when at last a happy thought came to me, and after many long, wakeful hours I emerged triumphant with a wonderful new mode of treatment, different from all others I had ever seen, yet so simple and practical it seems strange it had never been discovered before. A few friends tested my discovery with instant success. A noted French chemist, to whom I showed it, said it contained ingredients for dissolving the hair-root and all. One lady who tried it said: "A single application sufficed to destroy the hair instantly." "Removed every trace of the undesirable growth. I did not suffer one second," said another lady. "Hair completely disappeared, leaving my skin soft and white," said still another woman.

I have put my discovery to the hardest possible tests. I have seen this remarkable preparation put on an arm bristling with disgusting black hair and watched it fairly wither and die before my very eyes—shriveling up and vanishing as though touched by the hand of magic.

It seems certain now that I have at last discovered a plan which will succeed in producing marvelous results where all other plans have failed, and I believe that no matter how much or little superfluous hair is on your face, neck, arms or body you can, with my simple and wonderful discovery, remove completely every hateful hair, positively, painlessly and with perfect safety.

While I cannot agree to long continue this plan, I will for introductory purposes during the next 30 days send to every interested woman who writes to me information concerning the secret of my discovery absolutely free. If you like, you may enclose a 2c stamp for reply.

Simply address me, KATHRYN B. FIRMING, Suite 1334C, Clarke Music Building, Syracuse, N. Y., and I will send you by return mail full particulars in a plain sealed envelope.

Every lady reader of this paper who has the slightest interest in Miss Firming's wonderful discovery is urged to write to her without delay, for, as she has said, the information is free, and you have everything to gain and nothing to lose.

INDIAN RAILWAY MANAGER'S OPINION

Land Hunger is Strong Among Immigrants From Punjab

Some interesting opinions on Sikh emigration from the Punjab to British Columbia were expressed by Captain Osborne, deputy manager of the Eastern Bengal State railways, in the course of a chat with a Times man this morning. Captain Osborne, who is a furlough, is one of the British Royal Engineers officers, who are occupied in controlling the state railways after completion of active service work. He resides in Calcutta, where the head office of his railway is located. The captain has naturally taken considerable interest in the Hindu problem in British Columbia, and made some inquiries among the men as to their condition here.

He pointed out that the Sikhs here were very different men from those they had to deal with in Eastern Bengal. "The Sikh is an agriculturalist, and makes an excellent farmer as soon as he gets acquainted with local conditions," he said. "There is a great land hunger among them, and they look anxiously to a country where they can get a freehold in land, such as some parts of the empire hold out to their immigrants. I believe you would find scarcely a better class of settler in the world to develop British Columbia than the Sikh, but you have to look at the question of policy, or whether you want development by Oriental races? That is the crucial subject for decision. Remove the difficulties of admission, and you can get several thousand Sikhs here as easily as possible, but whether you wish them or not there is a moral right to the admission of the wives of men already here. I do not think the Sikh is a man whose morals would have a bad effect on the community as some represent, as they are regarded among the most moral races in India. No cases of this character are ever heard of in India, except among the low castes, or half breeds.

"There are three things which must not be disturbed with the Sikh—his religion, his female associations, and his land. Otherwise a Sikh community can be made to vote pretty much as its leaders direct, and if the franchise was given to the Hindus here, I believe that by influencing the leaders right, not by bribery, but by the fulfillment of specific promises, the Hindu vote would go en bloc for the institutions friendly to him. This is the possibility of the franchise which may have to be considered. At present a certain amount of freedom is given in the way of local elections to the native races of India."

Capt. Osborne continued: "The railways find the Sikhs good police-men, and the Eastern Bengal railway employs a considerable number on detective work. They are acting also as police in many municipalities in the East, and may be found at Singapore, Hongkong and Shanghai in comfortable circumstances, their trustworthy character making them well fitted for positions of trust. These men come here with money, and on returning to their people spread the desire to wander. So far as I have talked with Sikhs in this province, I find them satisfied, and disinclined to return to their home-land. Give them land and leave them undisturbed and there is no more trouble."

The captain said the removal of the administrative capital of the Indian Empire from Calcutta to the ancient seat of the Mogul Empire at Delhi could not fail to have a big difference on real estate in Calcutta. Prices were bound to go down, and houses would be cheaper than they had been before the announcement. So far as the city was concerned, however, he did not think it would make much difference, although the official classes would be removed.

He did not believe the seditious outbreaks of some months ago were necessarily directed against the British occupation, but would have been just as violent against a native administration. Ignorant youths inflamed by flamboyant literature had been inclined to throw bombs, but he did not regard it as an indication of real unrest, and he believed it would subside when better judgment prevailed.

With regard to the remark that in Canada there was a general disinclination to regard a British occupation of India as essential to the Empire the captain said that with India separated Canadian business would be crippled, so close were the ramifications of London finance with India and with Canada. It was a big subject to which too few people gave attention.

Capt. and Mrs. Osborne will remain at the Empress hotel for a day or two, and will then proceed to the South.

DEFENCE IS HEARD IN LOGGING SUIT

Experienced Lumber Men Give Evidence on Camp Practice

Evidence for the defence in the action of Klem against the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company was submitted in the Supreme Court this morning before Mr. Justice Gregory and a special jury, and this afternoon the addresses of counsel are being given. The plaintiff is claiming $3,000 damages for injuries sustained through the breaking of a swivel holding a logging cable. When the swivel broke the cable flew loose and plaintiff's leg was fractured.

F. D. Kenyon, twelve years a Pacific Coast logger, gave evidence for the company, contending that a camp blacksmith would make a better class swivel than the standard wholesale kind. It was not uncommon for a swivel to break, in fact, it often happened. The standard swivel shown in court, he said, might last one hour or three months.

Mr. Higgins the witness admitted that a knuckle swivel, which the plaintiff alleged was asked for, costs more than the kind that was used. The plaintiff was employed as rigging slinger, and witness said that if the hook tender was called away to unfurl a line the duty of watching the cable and the moving leg would then fall on the rigging slinger. He would have to stand where he could see the signal man. The plaintiff contends that he was acting for the hook tender who had been called away, and that he assumed the only position from where he could see the signal man.

Both Kenyon and Edgar A. Evans, foreman for the Cameron Lumber Co., said it was dangerous for the plaintiff to stand in the light of the line, and that he should have stood behind it, in which case he would not have been struck. The plaintiff held that he could not stand behind it as there was a ravine there. One witness remarked that if there was room for a tree to which the line was strung, there was room for the plaintiff to stand behind the line.

John H. Moore, vice-president of the company and in general command of the camp, gave evidence as to the satisfactory references he had obtained in regard to the superintendent employed, and of the purchases of the best steel for making swivels in camp. He said no complaints had reached him. While he could not give the number of accidents that have occurred at Jordan river since the logging operations commenced there, he admitted to Mr. Higgins that there had been several. He held that his foreman and the superintendent were both competent men, and based his opinion upon their work and by the number of logs they got out.

OBITUARY RECORD

One of the largest funerals which have taken place for some time in this city was that of the late Margaret Mitchell, of 564 Queen's avenue.

Friends not only in the city, but from Saanich and Sidney, gathered at the home to pay their last tribute to a departed friend. The room in which the casket rested was filled with beautiful floral tributes, showing the love and esteem of her many friends. Dr. Reed, who had known Mrs. Mitchell for nearly 50 years, spoke in the highest terms of her beautiful Christian character. Rev. Mr. Green assisted at the service which was very impressive.

The following acted as pallbearers: Dr. Tolmie, Dr. Fraser and Messrs. Noah Shakespeare, Beaven, Puckle and Armstrong.

The interment was at Ross Bay cemetery.

The funeral of Evelyn Muriel Vincent took place yesterday afternoon from the Sands-Fulton parlors. Rev. Robert Connell officiating.

The death of Mrs. Emily Marie Cobbold, wife of T. G. Cobbold, took place this morning at the family residence, Fraser street, at the age of 30 years. The deceased, who was a native of London, England, had lived in the city for the past fourteen months, whither she had come from Calgary. She is survived by her husband and two small children, the eldest of which is seven years of age; two brothers in England, and a brother in Calgary; and two sisters in England. The remains have been removed to the Sands-Fulton parlors. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, and will be announced later.

The funeral of Walter Noble took place this afternoon at 2:30 from the Victoria Undertaking parlors. Rev. Mr. Scott officiating. The following acted as pallbearers: Masters Joe Giehl, Colin Campbell, Falconer Campbell and Arthur Rossiter. There was an unusually large attendance and considerable floral tributes covered the casket.

A light-house has been built in Japan of bamboo, which is said to have greater power of resisting waves than any other kind of wood, and does not rot in water.

Chill has 8,000 miles of telephone, worked by an English company.

C.P.R. PARTY VISIT SONGHEES RESERVE

Messrs. Marpole, Beasley and Engineers Spent Part of Morning There

The conditions governing the arrangement which Premier McBride wired had been reached between the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern Pacific Railways relative to the Songhees Reserve probably will not be made public until Sir Richard's return. In the meantime as far as the C. P. R. is concerned, officials are giving the reserve considerable attention. A party consisting of R. Marpole, chief executive assistant to the President, H. E. Beasley, superintendent of the E. & N., with Messrs. Camble and Bambridge, company engineers, spent the greater part of the morning there, doubtless examining the site of the station, sheds and various sidings as proposed in the plans.

The Weather.—The high pressure area which for some time hung over Vancouver Island has now broken up, the barometer is again falling and unsettled weather seems to be once more the order of the day. The weather still remains fair and mild in the prairie provinces.

Sale of Work.—The Ladies' Guild of St. Mary's church, Oak Bay, will hold a sale of work in Christ Church Cathedral schoolroom on Tuesday, November 26, 1913, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., at which fancy work and home-made candy will be sold and afternoon tea served, the proceeds to be devoted to the building fund.

Board of Trade.—The secretary of the local board of trade reports this morning that he has received several letters from prospective settlers for Vancouver Island intimating their intention of leaving for the Borneo of the West very shortly. One of these is from the owner of a bioscope theatre in London, who will bring his four boys to work on a farm near Victoria, while the other enquiries included a carpenter at Melita, a painter at Sakatoon and from various parts of the Dominion letters from farmers and poultry ranchers.

Committed Suicide.—A coroner's jury this afternoon found a verdict of suicide at the inquest held to determine the cause of death of John Smith, a carpenter, who was found in a bunk house at the Saanich Inlet Cement Works on Wednesday afternoon with a large wound in his throat. Evidence given at the inquest was that the deceased had tried to drown himself on Wednesday morning and had been placed in the bunk house when taken from the water. He had been drinking heavily.

From Seven Countries.—A large number of enquiries reached the office of the Vancouver Island Development League this morning. No less than seven countries were represented in the morning's mail, and the widespread interest which is now being taken in Victoria and the Island on which it stands is nowhere more truly demonstrated than in the daily mail bag at the local League's office. Letters were received this morning from: Bradford College, England; Glasgow; Limerick; the Rand, South Africa; Toronto; Southern California, and West Australia.

Cymrodorion Society.—The Cymrodorion Society met last evening at the usual quarters in Broad street, the special feature of the occasion being the introduction of H. Watkins, of Calgary, to the members of the society. Mr. Edwards, in making the introduction, saying that the visitor had on no less than 6 occasions represented Wales on the Rugby union football field. Mr. Watkins expressed delight at meeting so many of his countrymen, many of whom, he said, he had met in Calgary and Vancouver, where they seemed to be making successful careers. Mrs. Jenkins presided, and the remainder of the evening was enlivened by an excellent musical programme given by Miss Gladys Steinmetz, who, recited, also Rees Lloyd, and solos by Messrs. D. C. Hughes, Evans, Evans, Hughes and Williams, and Miss Hardy; readings, Mrs. Houghton, and pianoforte selection, J. Dillworth. It was announced that a social evening would be given for the entertainment of the Welsh Union Football Club, the suggestion being heartily approved by the meeting.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By Ruth Cameron

"But I never actually felt tired," protested a woman who had completely broken down after a period of overwork.

"No," said the doctor, "of course you didn't. You were too tired for that, but you had other warnings."

Nature has a great many danger signals. The most common is the red light of a physical physical weariness. We all know enough to recognize that even if we don't always heed it. But there are other signals of even more imminent danger which many people entirely fail to recognize.

For instance, if at the end of a hard day's work your back aches, you know that you have overdone; but if you meet an acquaintance and simply cannot think of his name, do you connect that also with your overwork? Or do you simply feel annoyed at your loss of memory and let it go at that?

A woman whom I know, is overworking. She is in fairly good physical condition, and so she will not admit that she is overtaxing herself. But I notice that whenever she wants to speak to any one of her children she has to pause a moment before she can select the right name, and often calls the child by its brother's or sister's name instead of its own.

Again the trick of saying the exact opposite of what you mean. Hot when you mean cold, summer when you want to say winter and so on, I have found, in my own case at least, to be a reminder that I am overworking. Some people who have a habit of doing this and that, I believe, is usually a sign that their condition is a little below par.

That confused feeling, that inability to understand what people mean, or to decide what you want to do next, which most of us feel once in a while, is another red flag on the track to warn us that we had better go slow.

What do I mean by "go slow"? Well for one thing I mean it literally. Stop hurrying. It takes just about twice as much energy to do a thing in a hurry as to do the same thing in your own time.

Again, stop worrying. It takes twice as much energy to cross a bridge twice.

Be outdoors all you can. Add an hour to your sleep. See if your eyes are in proper condition.

Try to remember that after all you don't have to hold the whole universe on your shoulders; that if you do your best that is all that is required of you, and Providence will take care of the rest.

Try that course of treatment for a month, and I am quite sure Nature will withdraw her red flags.

NO CONSTABLE YET AT SHAWNIGAN

DEPARTMENT IGNORES
HENRY BEHNSEN, M. P. P.

Residents and Owners of Cottages at Summer Resort Apply to Police for Help

Following the futile requests to the attorney-general of Henry BehnSEN, M. P. P., showing either the latter's lack of influence or the attorney-general's indifference, the people of Shawnigan lake district have appealed to the superintendent of provincial police, Colin Campbell, for a special, or a provincial constable for Shawnigan lake district during the winter months, when many homes and cottages are left unprotected against burglars and tramps. The appointment, however, must come through the attorney-general's office, and Mr. Campbell will have to await instructions from Mr. Bowser regarding the appointment.

There have been numerous robberies reported at Shawnigan lake in the last two months, and many cases of breaking and entering are known of. Tramps seeking winter shelter have taken possession of the summer homes there that have been closed for the winter, forcing an entrance. In some instances the houses have been ransacked and articles of value have been stolen, and in every instance the cottages have been left in a filthy condition when the tramps and thieves have seen fit to move onward.

The attorney-general's department was made aware of the crime that has been occurring at Shawnigan lake on three occasions by Henry BehnSEN, M. P. P., but Mr. Bowser and his departmental officers took not the slightest notice of Victoria's member. All that was needed was the authorization of an expenditure of less than $100 per month for the protection of many thousand dollars' worth of property, but the government have ignored the people at the lake just as they have ignored Mr. BehnSEN.

It was suggested to the provincial police that a special constable, appointed from the residents of the district, be sworn in for the duty required, but the department took no notice, and the robberies still continue. There is never a week end but some property owner from Victoria goes to the lake to find his cottage has been entered.

Within the last three weeks a burglar was caught by the owner in one of the houses. Fortunately the owner had a double-barrelled gun in his hands at the time. He marched the man up the railway line to Koenig's hotel, from where police aid was telephoned for. While waiting in the hall of the hotel the man with the gun extracted the cartridges from his weapon, where on the captive instantly jumped on him, assaulting his captor and wrenching the gun from him. The robber then ran off and gained the shelter of the woods.

Although the provincial police were at once notified by telephone, and Superintendent Campbell sent two men along the roads to watch for the man who was wanted, the extent of country and its suitability for concealment helped the criminal, who has not been caught to this day. For cases of the kind the residents of Shawnigan lake as well as the summer visitors who leave their cottages locked in winter, are now trying to get a man appointed through the police department, because all their efforts in other directions have been disregarded.

FORMER MEMBER OF COMMISSION

C. A. YOUNG ON COAST
EN ROUTE TO SOUTH

Opinion Upon Western Shipment of Grain and Heating of Wheat in Tropics

En route to California with Mrs. Young and their daughter, C. A. Young, the well-known Winnipeg grain merchant, and for several years a member of the National Transcontinental Railway Commission, arrived in the city yesterday evening, and will make a brief stay here before going south.

Mr. Young said that in view of his retirement from public life when the commissioners resigned, when the work was vested in a single commissioner, Major Leonard, he did not wish to discuss public questions at the present time. He had been advised to winter in a more equable climate than Manitoba, and for this reason the family were going to California. While his association with the National Transcontinental had kept him mainly east of Winnipeg he had watched the advance of the West, and he was astonished at the progress which had been made in a short time in British Columbia.

As a past president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, Mr. Young is a leading man in the grain business in the capital, and his opinions on the western shipment of wheat are of interest. Speaking on this subject, he says:

"Once the Panama Canal is completed and the two new transcontinental lines with low grades across the Rockies are here, the greatest factors in the shipment of prairie wheat via the Pacific will have been provided. There is only one argument which is at all authoritatively urged against such shipments on a large scale, and that is the danger of the wheat heating during its journey through the Tropics. There are several answers to that objection. One is that wheat heats within two weeks after being threshed, so that the heating would be all over before it landed on board the vessels here, and even if the 'sweating' process was not completed by that time it would be long before the time the vessel got into the Tropics. Another answer to that objection is that many of the Western farmers are building granaries, and the wheat cools off there. There are many reasons why the farmers should construct individual granaries. It would enable them to market their grain whenever they wished, and by so doing they are likely to get better prices than right at threshing time, when the great bulk of the grain is rushed to market."

"In this connection I may say that the railways are doing wonders this fall in carrying the grain East to sea-board, but it is just as well that a large part of the grain should be held back. The European consumers do not want it all at once, but only as they need it. Some one must store the grain until it is needed, and the fact that it is not the grower who does so means that some one else is getting a lot of the profits produced by later rises in prices. If the farmers had granaries they could hold the grain until the market price suited them."

Dr. Young continues to take a keen interest in politics, and while, he said, the circumstances of his appointment under the late federal government prevented him taking a prominent share as he once did in Manitoba, when he was in the legislature of that province, he earnestly believes that the country will recover from the fall madness of 1911, and that the party throughout Canada is much stronger than it is in the house. The signs of the political revival in Manitoba are as patent as he finds them in British Columbia, with the confidence of a big turn-over as soon as the country is given an opportunity to express itself again at the polls. The Macdonald bye-election was by no means a true test of public opinion, and many influential Liberals regretted that the candidature of Mr. Richardson was endorsed under the circumstances, in view of the candidate's changing political associations. Mr. Young, who is staying at the Empress hotel, renewed acquaintance with many old friends from Ottawa and elsewhere, whom he has known in other spheres of life.

SOLICITOR FOR PLAINTIFF.—My lord, I have to state on behalf of my client: That less than one month ago, on the 20th day of October to be exact, we purchased a pair of Boots, which from all outward appearance were of a sound and durable character, and for which we paid the perfectly reasonable and legitimate price of $4.50; the latter fact I would respectfully ask your lordship to bear particularly in mind.

HIS LORDSHIP.—Did your client pay cash in this matter, or was it a credit transaction?

SOLICITOR FOR PLAINTIFF.—My lord, I have to emphatically assure you, that the consideration was one of absolute prompt cash: Now, my lord, I shall produce my client, a man of reliable character, of undoubted veracity, who will explain that in one week. Mark you, my lord, one short week, the boots which form the basis of this action, had parted company, upper from sole, and failed ignominiously to fulfill the purpose for which they were purchased, and my client found himself walking the streets of this attractive (but for the time being) damp city, with sodden feet, the result of which was a serious attack of rheumatism and the grippe.

HIS LORDSHIP.—It is unnecessary for my learned friend to proceed with his case; so long as the public willfully shut their eyes, to the obvious advantage of trading with such a reliable house as "CHRISTIE'S," which has so long and honorably catered for the needs of any and every season, so long must they take the responsibility upon their own shoulders of receiving questionable value for their money, and I would suggest that you impress this fact seriously upon the mind of your client, that for boots and shoes of durable, lasting quality, of superior style and finish, there is no store in this city which caters more conscientiously, more thoroughly, than Membership Passed 900 Mark—W. E. Scott Cup Races To-morrow.

A. J. England, member of the Y. M. C. A. reports that the number of new men joining at what is the beginning of the new year for the institution is most encouraging and new signatures are coming in at the rate of over ten a day. This morning the nine hundred mark was passed and it is very likely that in a few days more the membership will reach the four figure mark.

To-morrow the Y. M. C. A. boys will compete for the W. E. Scott cup for Boy Scouts swimming relay race. The Fourth (for Y. M. C. A. troops), will be represented by the following five youthful swimmers: T. Heyland, C. Laundy, E. Smith, G. Marwick and J. Hedley.

H. M. Hillis delivered a short address to the educational men yesterday evening, and the talk was greatly enjoyed by all.

RATE OF INTEREST FOR DEBENTURES

MAY BE NECESSARY TO INCREASE OFFER

School Board Finance in Light of Present
Controversy

It is not unlikely that the city council will be advised to follow the example of other municipalities who are large borrowers of money in the British market, and have to advance the rate of interest to four and a half per cent for local improvement issues. The interest offered in the past has been four per cent on ten-year bonds, but with the competition from other borrowers it is not improbable that the city's fiscal agents, the Dominion Securities Company, will recommend a change being made at an early date.

Such an alteration would involve an amendment of the city's powers by the legislature, the present limit being so imposed. Most of the Canadian municipal issues are now fixed at 4½ per cent, and Victoria cannot but expect to follow the lead which is being set by Toronto and Ottawa in these matters. Existing by-laws could not well be modified, as it would vary the assessment on them throughout.

It is hoped that the shorter term issues of the city now on the market will be disposed of before the end of the year, being more easy to sell than long term issues. Should an increase in the rate of interest be offered, there is little doubt the investment would offer greater inducements to investors than the existing state of things. It is evident that Victoria will have to fall into harmony with other cities and pay an added price for borrowed money.

In connection with the financial controversy between the school board and city council, which will be removed when the discussion on the proposed rescinding of the objectionable motion is again taken up on Monday, it is clear that unless the school debentures are disposed of shortly, the council will have to make some arrangement with the board to finance their construction programme after the balance under the two by-laws (Nos. 6 and 8) has been expended.

Under school loan by-law No. 6, authorizing the raising of $154,000 for various purposes, the sum of $143,404 has been expended on the High school, $16,317 on the George Jay and Sir James Douglas schools, $9,646 on building annexes at the Girls' Central, Rock Bay, and two at North Ward, making a total of $189,388, leaving a balance of $14,612 for the High school fund, $6,681 on the first two named schools, and $3,495 to meet a bill of the Buffalo Forge Company, making a total of $24,059 balance in hand on Wednesday, when the books were totalled. There is, of course, also a small sum of money due from the bank by way of interest.

On No. 8 loan the sum of $55,099 out of $154,682 has been expended, leaving a balance of $99,583. Only $5,000 has been expended this year, the other $50,000 being divided among various items last year. While two balances are hypothecated to specific work, it is impossible to make any change in the subjects upon which they can be expended, so that some arrangement will have to be reached shortly if municipal debentures remain a drug on the financial market, and the contractors' progress reports absorb these balances, as in time they must do.

A NEW CHURCH.

Nazarenes Will Worship in This City.—Opening Services Sunday.

For the past eight or nine months a small body of people called Nazarenes have been quietly working in a rather obscure corner of the city. Their efforts have been so far successful, and the interest and numbers so increased, that feeling the need of larger and more convenient quarters, they have just completed a very neat building on the corner of Fisguard and Chambers streets, and next Sunday will witness the opening of a new church in the city called the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene. Rev. D. Rand Pierce, of Vancouver, will preach the dedication sermon at 10.30 a. m. Services will be held also at 2.30 and 7.30 p. m., when Mr. Pierce will be assisted by evangelists John Douglas and wife, of Vancouver, and the local pastor of the new church, Rev. G. S. Hunt.

During the last decade the Nazarene church has made very rapid growth in the United States, and for several years a few societies have existed in the Maritime Provinces, but it is only within the last year that the denomination has made its appearance in the Canadian west.

The Nazarenes are a company of people who believe in the "old book" without any intermixture of German Rationalism or Tom Paineism. They practice a simple form of worship and are free from fads.

The work in this city has heretofore been known as the Bethel Holiness Mission, and the services have been held in the Lee Building, corner of Johnson and Broad streets, from which they are now removed to the new church.

Evangelistic services will be held nightly at eight o'clock during the week following the opening, to be conducted by Rev. Pierce and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and the local workers. The public are cordially invited to these meetings, not only on the Sabbath, but throughout the week.

FORTUNE TELLER SENT FOR TRIAL

TOLD TWO DETECTIVES
VERY NICE FUTURES

Necessity for Publicity of Motor Act Regulations Mentioned by Magistrate

On the evidence of Detectives Turner and Edens, who visited Madame Sellick, alleged fortune teller, and learned of their futures, Magistrate Jay this morning committed the woman for trial on a charge of fortune telling, wherein she was taken into custody by Constable Andrew Wood and held pending the arrangements made by her solicitor, J. S. Brandon, for bail, which was obtained later in the morning. There was no evidence given at the preliminary hearing this morning on behalf of Madame Sellick, Mr. Brandon reserving his side of the case until it comes on in the next court.

Evidence by the two detectives showed that their careers were wonderfully alike, for they both learned they were to live long, had good life lines, were lucky, and good natured in some things, but Detective Edens had the better of Detective Turner on matrimony. The palmist asserted that Detective Edens would be married soon and that by and by he would have a small family. There was no marital joy held out for Constable Turner, but instead the palmist promised him a trip somewhere in two weeks. The information cost the police department $1.

Before the detectives were told their fortunes they were given a document to read and asked to sign it. If they did not sign there would be no revelation. The document is a duplicate of that produced at the last trial of Madame Sellick on a similar charge, and is an agreement between the client and the palmist that it is understood she is not telling fortunes, but advising them to the best of her ability.

Magistrate Jay this morning addressed those in court on the advisability of arranging for the general distribution of copies of the motor act, and particularly of certain clauses contained therein. His remarks came as the result of a Hindu having bought an automobile and having failed to have the license and number transferred to his own name. It was not generally known, said Mr. Jay, that it was necessary to have the transfer made when an automobile was sold, and he thought it advisable if arrangements were made through the police to have sections of the motor act posted in all garages where many drivers are, and where automobiles were stored. The rules of the road and the speed laws and the clauses regarding the transfers were mentioned as special clauses that should be made as public as possible.

It was explained to the magistrate that the provincial police issued to every person who owned an automobile and took out a license, a copy of the motor act, but his honor said there were many young drivers of automobiles who were not owners, and these could take cognizance of the laws if the clauses were posted in all public garages.

The Hindu, represented by Mr. Brandon pleaded guilty, and was fined $10.

Ice Hockey Club.—The Y. M. C. A. hockey club met last evening in the Blanchard street building and authorized the drawing up of a constitution by the executive and also appointed that body to represent it at the Ice Hockey League meeting to be held in room G at the Y. It has been arranged that the rink will be in use for the members for two nights per week practice, and the club is secure in the belief that they will be able to make a very good showing in the league.

Police Ball Tickets.—Those who desire to attend the annual police ball, December 4, and have not been called on by members of the ticket committee can from to-day on, obtain tickets at the detective office and at the police station. The sale through the two committees has ceased and the total of last year has been passed. The sale starting to-day will be continued until the day of the ball.

GAS, SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION VANISH

As Soon as "Pape's Diapepsin"
Gets in Stomach All
Distress is Gone

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvellous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back. It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach, during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

We appoint a Judge among the Best People

SO that we may know that we have the best designed and the most attractive line of fine tailoring for men we keep in close touch with our customers always. We like to see them afterwards—to have their opinion, their criticism. No merchant can keep abreast of the times unless he invites and receives intelligent criticism.

Semi-ready Tailoring has both prestige and reputation, at home and abroad—and it holds its place because the men who make it are broad in this respect.

We want you to be the judge—"a judge without recall"—and we agree to win a verdict for Semi-ready Tailoring on merit, or lose the suit—literally.

DUTIES OF ALL KEEPERS OF STOCK

IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS TO CIVIC REGULATIONS

Existing Legislation to Be Amended by New By-laws

Two important by-laws are due for further consideration at the meeting of the city council on Monday. They cover phases of life which often cause considerable discomfort to the public; and are little understood by the owners of animals, whether of stock or poultry, or as dog owners.

The whole of the civic legislation affecting animals subject to impounding is to be repealed, and a new by-law passed, while practically all the rules governing the keeping of dogs have to be reconsidered in the light of the by-law which will now govern the administration of the keeping of canine animals.

The pound by-law fixes three pounds in the city, the old one at Queen's avenue in the Spring Ridge district, the one now principally used at Garbally road, Rock Bay, while the third is the setting aside of the southerly half of lot 100, block D, section 31, Victoria West.

Impounding.

Having fixed the duties and term of office of poundkeeper and his assistants, in section 3, it is enacted that no animals or poultry are permitted to run at large unthethered on any public street or wharf, or to be tied upon any unfenced lots or land by a rope or chain of a greater length than 25 feet, or tied or tethered within a distance of 35 feet of any street in the city. Impounding is the penalty for the breach of this section.

The poundkeeper will be entitled to a fee of 25 cents for every goose, duck or poultry, and $1 for each swine, hog, sheep or goat, and $2 for every other animal impounded, and is to daily furnish all animals impounded in the city pound with good and sufficient food, water, shelter and attendance.

Arrangements for advertising the animals or poultry before sale are provided, and a penalty of $50 is fixed for offences under the by-law.

Dog Regulations.

In the case of the dog by-law the fees are fixed as follows: For every male dog, over the age of 6 months, the sum of $2.00 per annum. For every bitch over the age of 6 months, the sum of $5.00 per annum.

Every owner is required to register the dog with the city treasurer on or before February 1.

A man keeping a kennel may take an annual license of $10 to cover the lot.

The city treasurer is to keep a record of registration, and supply metal tags.

Running at Large.

The next clause (6) is important: "No person shall allow any dog, being his property, to run at large in the city unaccompanied by some person in charge thereof, and the fact that any dog is so found running at large shall be evidence that such running at large was done by the permission of the owner."

"No dog shall be allowed to enter the Beacon Hill park, North park or any other public park within the city of Victoria unless such dog is accompanied by a person in charge thereof and is led on a leash or chain by such person."

The lot of land and premises now used as a dog pound, on the city wharf, west of Herald street, is designated as a city pound.

The owner of any dog impounded may redeem the same from the pound upon proving his ownership thereof, and paying to the city treasurer the registration fee, if the dog is not registered, and a fine of $1.25 for each day or part thereof that such dog has been in pound and cost of advertising, if any.

A dog which is not claimed within 72 hours may be sold. Dogs unsold may be killed by the poundkeeper.

No person is to harbor any vicious or noisy dog. A penalty of $50 is fixed for infringements of the by-law.

"The Secret of Suzanne."

Speaking of "The Secret of Suzanne," the Wolf-Ferrari opera which Andreas Dippel's company from the Chicago grand opera will present here on the 23rd, the Musical Review says: "It has just enough humor and sentiment to make it a perfectly balanced work of art—throughout it is opera, comique, never comic opera. It might well degenerate into farce with artists of less polish than Berry, Daddi and Costa; as they give it there is plenty to laugh at, but never anything to laugh out. If Costa were not a great baritone he would be a great comedian. Any man who can break up the furniture and retain the sympathy of his wife and an audience of women is a master, outside farce, that is, where sympathy is not in question. The music is tuneful, snappy, illustrative—quite in the modern Italian style, which is bravely maintaining the melodious traditions of the school in spite of both German and French influences. It is so well done that it may stand as a refreshing example of music that can be light without being trashy. As becomes its purpose, it is at times precious; indeed, one of the delights of the work is the clever manner in which that element is maintained, even in the tender episodes and the angry ones. It has the cigarette flavor from beginning to end. Away from the stage much of it would be trivial; but so are cigarettes, and the jealousy of the count and the secret of the countess, deliciously trivial. It is in the use of such material that the Latin race excels. The working out of the precious little plot is clever in its sufficiency of incident. You have a lonely little wife and a husband and his club; a chance sight of the wife not altogether lonely on her promenade is the only fault to be found. The curtain rises—that and her little habit of smoking an occasional cigarette. The rest is to Latinize an Americanism—just one dainty thing after another. For of course we must not be so grossly Anglo-Saxon as to look upon the husband's search for an interloper as anything but the most dainty attention prompted by marital affection. If it offend, dismiss it with 'So Italian,' and no one will be offended, not even an Italian. And entirely Italian is the company, although under a Chicago name. The string orchestra under Sig. Attilio Parelli is entirely adequate."

Educational Lecture Course.

The Graphic in writing of the eminent lecturer, R. D. Baumgardt, says: "Mr. Baumgardt impresses with strong personal magnetism. He holds and interests his audience with a vitality and intensity of style which never flags for a moment. He takes a grip on his audience on the instant. You cannot get rid of the man and his fascination, try as you would. Mr. Baumgardt gives three lectures in the opera house, to-night, to-morrow afternoon and to-morrow night.

Of Mr. Baumgardt's lecture the Sun says: "Frequent bursts of applause interrupted Mr. Baumgardt's lecture last night in Pender hall, called forth either by the beauty of the pictures or the beauty of the language. Mr. Baumgardt is a lecturer endowed with a pleasing personality, a flexible, well-trained voice and a knowledge of the dramatic values contained in his subject which last night was the 'Romance of Civilization.'"

Mr. Baumgardt traced the progress of civilization in its rhythmic rise and fall. He dwelt especially on the art and architecture of the Moors and the Greeks. He told of the debt we owe the Moors of the priceless legacy they have given civilization in chemistry alone. All the terms used in that science are of Arabic extraction, and the Moors were the descendants of the Arabs.

Greece, with her wonderful store of art treasures, was shown on the canvas and explained in beautiful prose. The pictures were wonderful in color and feeling, seeming to have caught the atmosphere of the scenes which they depicted.

Mr. Baumgardt closed his scholarly lecture that was so much appreciated, by saying he believed that civilization was tending toward the brotherhood of man, when all nations would combine for the general good and war would be a thing of the past, a cannon ball regarded as we regard the ancient implements of torture.

PASSING SHOW

The Calgary Stampede.

The Calgary Stampede is to be reproduced at the Empress moving pictures show Monday and Tuesday, November 18 and 19.

Three thousand feet of the most sensational and thrilling features of the "Grand Stampede" held at Calgary the first week in September under the royal patronage of His Highness the Duke of Connaught, is the feature that will be offered to the patrons of the Empress moving picture show Monday and Tuesday next.

It is the only reproduction of the world's greatest "wild west" and Canadian frontier celebration ever reproduced in moving picture films, and it is guaranteed this picture was never shown in Canada, having but just arrived from a Seattle engagement, and is now looking through the Dominion. This picture was taken inside the stampede grounds. Those who were able to visit Calgary during the celebration now have an opportunity of seeing the whole performance without the enormous expense such a trip would have cost.

In addition to the stampede pictures is a hand-colored film showing the ins and outs of the Canadian Rockies, entitled "A Trip from Seattle to Calgary." This alone will be worth the price of admission for the two pictures.

Majestic Theatre.

A good selection of pictures have been secured for to-day and Saturday. "The Troubled Trail" depicts a ranchman living alone. He assumes the guardianship of a young girl in compliance with her father's dying request. Her presence in the ranchman's home creates scandal which he resents. To protect her he marries her. This is prompted by duty rather than love. Later he thinks another man has eloped with her. It is then he finds he loves her. He goes in pursuit of her and learns his jealousy was unfounded, and he loses no time in declaring his love. "A Baby's Shoe" is a good drama with several strong situations. "Evolution and Life of a Silkworm" is a very valuable educational film made in Cambodia. "A Well Washed House" is a laughable picture showing how to clean house. "At the Basket Picnic" the delightful human quality in this film's situation provides a good, hearty laugh, while the sprightliness and naturalness of nearly all the action in the picture keeps up a ripple of amusement.

The Empress Theatre.

"The Miser's Dream," the little comedy drama in a nutshell, in which Hyman B. Alder and his company appear at the Empress theatre this week, has some excellent situations and keeps the interest from the time the curtain rises. The plot deals with a change of heart brought about in a miser by a dream. Miss Daisy Stemp-hell appears to advantage as the miser's daughter and Mr. Martin Valentine as the lover. The sketch is given a good setting.

Leonard Martinek, who, with his Rag Doll, is a direct importation by Messrs. Sullivan & Considine from the halls of Europe, gives a novelty act. This is considered one of the best foreign novelties included in the Empress bills this season. The couple recently completed an engagement lasting four months at the Wintergarten at Berlin.

Miss Grace Leonard, "The American Boy," as she is billed on the programme, is a young woman who has won much applause from the audience for her clever characterizations and boyish impersonations. She is assisted by Frank Wilson.

A trio of young men who can dance, sing and burlesque well are Davey, DeMusey and Getsey. The talented three have good voices which blend very well and their funny travesties keep the audiences in a state of merriment.

Dale and Boyle, "The Belle and the Beaux," are a couple of performers who offer some good songs and dances. Dale is considered as a rival of Julian Eltinge in his impersonation work. They are meeting with much success during their engagement here.

IF You had a sore place, and had to choose between two remedies, one of which went to the sore spot direct, and the other by a round-about way, and might never get there at all, which would you prefer?

When you have a cold, asthma, a sore chest, catarrh, or any lung trouble, you can select between two remedies—Peps, which go to the sore spot direct, and any of the ordinary cough mixtures, cough drops, and doses, which go—not to the lungs and breathing passages, but to the stomach; which is not sitting at all.

Don't ruin your stomach in an attempt to heal your throat and lungs. Peps go direct to the throat and lungs. Peps are tiny tablets containing certain medicinal ingredients, which when placed upon the tongue immediately turn into vapour, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the capillaries and tiny air sacs in the lungs, thus ending asthma, catarrh, bronchitis, colds, etc.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence their work of healing.

Once you try them you will never use any other remedy but Peps for coughs, sore throat, catarrh, tightness across the chest, "that night cough," and all breathing and lung troubles.

Have you tried this famous remedy?

If not cut out this article, write across it the name and date of this paper, and mail it (with 1c. stamp to pay return postage) to Peps Co., Toronto. A free trial packet will then be sent you. All druggists and stores sell Peps at 50c. box.

SENSATIONS BREWING HOCKEY—

EASTERN STARS BOOKED FOR COAST

Lichtenhein Claims to Have Signed Don. Smith—Rumor La-londe Will Retire—Ottawa Will Refuse to Play Toronto Unless They Receive Purchase Price for Bruce Ridpath

Important developments are expected in the hockey world within the next twenty-four hours. The annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association will be held to-night at Vancouver, when the schedule for the Coast League will be given out, while the course the league will follow to offset any move being made by the N. H. A. will be announced. While a raid on the eastern clubs is unlikely, it is just possible that the Vancouver and New Westminster clubs will decide to cut loose and cop off a couple of the stars to fill out their teams. Telegrams are now in the hands of the coast officials from prominent eastern stars, stating their willingness to make the jump to the coast organization.

Has Smith Jumped? Dispatches from the east yesterday stated that Don. Smith had jumped to the Wanderers. In view of the fact that Smith has written letters to the coast to the effect that he will be here, this must be taken with a grain of salt. It is known, however, that he has been dicker with the Montreal clubs. It is also said that Newsy Lalonde will do the Patti act for one season, but here again the report appears exaggerated. Fancy a financier like Edward C. Lalonde throwing over the eighteen hundred dollars waiting for him in Vancouver to sit by the fireside in Cornwall for the winter months.

Stars For the Coast. The Ottawas are preparing to raise trouble in the N. H. A. because the Toronto refuse to pay the Senators a price for Bruce Ridpath. The former champions state that they will not play the Blue Shorts until the money is paid over and here again President Quinn is in for a lot of diplomacy necessary to straighten things out. Jimmy Gardner and Carl Kendall leave for the coast next week, and Ottawa rumors mention the names of Fred Taylor, Didier Piro, Jack Laviolette and Goldie Rodgers as the men who will follow in their tracks. All four are defence men. Marty Walsh will report the first of December, also Albert Kerr, if the latter is able to get out of the hospital.

LOS ANGELES BOUTS.

Championships Will Be Decided on Saturday Night—Elimination in Progress.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 15.—Eleven three-round bouts formed the first night's card of the Pacific Coast amateur boxing championship tournament at the Los Angeles A. C. rooms last night.

In the middleweight class, Robert McAllister, of the Olympic Club, of San Francisco, defeated Earl McBeus, of the Multnomah A. C., Portland. In the lightweight class, Frank Malone, of the Olympic Club, was given the decision over Emil Becker, of Los Angeles. The championship matches will be contested Saturday night after more elimination bouts to-morrow.

DOC ROLLER LOSES.

Montreal, Nov. 15.—Constant Lemarin took two out of three falls from Dr. E. F. Roller in a mixed style wrestling match here last night.

HUNT CLUB RUN.

The run of the Victoria Hunt Club will start from Cedar Hill Cross Roads to-morrow at 2.30 p.m.

NEW SOCCER TROPHY.

Toronto, Nov. 15.—The Connaught Cup, the trophy representing the championship of Canada in soccer football, has been forwarded by Captain T. H. Bulkeley, controller of the duke's house, to Tom Robertson, secretary of the Dominion of Canada Football Association. The cup is a magnificent silver trophy, bearing the Royal Arms and this inscription: Challenge Cup, presented to the Dominion of Canada Football Association by Field Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, 1912.

ROGER FOR PIRATES.

Pittsburg Fans in Frenzy Over Reported Signing of St. Louis Manager.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—The bugs in Pittsburg have gone clean daffy over the idea of landing Roger Bresnahan for the Pirates.

One of the best-known baseball followers in the city offered to bet even money against the field, that with Bresnahan on the roster of the Pirates, Pittsburg would win the pennant and the world's championship.

JOHNSON IN JAIL.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Johnson's attorneys late in the day offered as bondman a property holder who could qualify for $50,000. On learning that the proffered bondman was to be indemnified and paid for acting, he was refused.

"The government will fight any attempt to give an indemnity bond for the defendant," District Attorney Wilkerson said.

MAY ROW BARRY.

Harry Pearce, champion single sculler of Australia, is endeavoring to secure a match with Ernest Barry, the world's champion. Pearce's friends have forwarded a challenge to the Englishman for a race here or on the Thames course.

CROSS BEAT HOGAN.

New York, Nov. 15.—Leach Cross, of this city, knocked out "One-Round" Hogan, of California, in the third round of a scheduled ten-round fight here.

CAMBRIDGE BEATEN.

London, Eng., Nov. 15.—The score in yesterday's Rugby match was: South Africans 24, Cambridge University 0.

THIS IS THE TIME TO SEE

SUMMERLAND

Numbers of people saw this splendid, nearby, summer and permanent home property yesterday and thoroughly enjoyed the brisk ride in comfortable motors and the lovely view of the subdivision. Winter or summer the charm of "SUMMERLAND" cannot be overlooked. Many a cosy home will be erected there this coming summer and it is already assured that this property that was formerly famous as the Heatherbell Orchards will be even more famous for its beauty and for its charming semi-country homes in years to come.

LIFE BY THE PLEASANT LAGOON

Will be happy in the highest sense. Every lot will have access to the placid Esquimalt Lagoon, where boating and bathing are ideal. There is good fishing and shooting to be had in season close at hand and the opportunity for delightful strolls in the woods, the splendid scenery and the fresh, pure air will conduct to the best kind of living. The soil—being the soil chosen for the famous and successful orchard is almost perfect for fruit and vegetable raising, and every lot, even the least large, is ample for a good garden and neat lawns. The business or professional man, overwrought and careworn, will find here the very environment that will, in a few hours each day, rebuild the nerve force that alone assures success and health. Every man and woman, every child, will be the better by far for living in such surroundings as can be found in "SUMMERLAND."

THE INVESTMENT and THE TWO PRIZES

In spite of its many important selling points we are offering this property at remarkably low prices. Look where you will for waterfront property anything like as close to the centre of things and you will realize that this is the cheapest waterfront property on the market by a good deal. Figure out the prices asked for ACREAGE alongside of "SUMMERLAND" and you will see that we are selling our LOTS cheaper than the adjoining property is going in ACREAGE. Consider that the demand for just this type of property is increasing almost every month; consider also that there will be a ferry service from the end of the Esquimalt street car line which will cut down the distance to almost nothing. Buy a lot now, and if you want to sell you will make good profits on your investment. THEN THERE ARE TWO BIG PRIZES OFFERED SIMPLY TO STIMULATE INTEREST AND INSURE QUICK SALE. THE FIRST PRIZE IS A FINE 8-ROOMED HOUSE AND THREE-QUARTERS OF AN ACRE, IN "SUMMERLAND," AND WORTH $5000. THE SECOND PRIZE IS A 1912 MODEL CHALMERS 36 H.P. MOTOR CAR, FULLY EQUIPPED, WORTH $3000. EVERY PURCHASER OF A LOT WILL PARTICIPATE IN A DRAWING AT THE CLOSE OF THE SALE. THE LUCKY TICKETS TAKE THE PRIZES. IF YOU BUY A LOT TO-DAY YOU WILL GET A SPLENDID BARGAIN AND YOU MAY BE THE LUCKY WINNER OF HOUSE OR CAR.

Choosing Your Own Neighbors

Is a feature of "SUMMERLAND" selling that is being jumped at by many buyers. The idea is to get together several of your friends and then select lots adjoining one another. Thus, when you all come to build summer or permanent homes you will know that your immediate neighbors are just the type of people you would desire to have, people whom you know and like. It is a good idea; why not try it? But you must act quickly as the lots are going very fast.

Tea Cocoa Coffee

"What shall I drink?"

Have you ever asked yourself?

It's almost as important to you as "What shall I eat?"

If you will look up the subject, you will find that physicians attribute a great many ailments to tea or coffee.

They attribute none to cocoa.

On the contrary, you will notice they say that cocoa is a nutritious and beneficial beverage.

One cup of Lowney's Cocoa contains more nourishment than 24 cups of the best tea ever brewed and more than 22 cups of the best coffee.

And Lowney's has the true cocoa flavor—rich, delicious, appetizing. There is no finer cocoa-making equipment in the world than you will find at our Montreal factory.

Try Lowney's Cocoa once and see if you don't want it daily.

Sold by grocers. In tins—10c to 50c sizes.

The Best Way to Make Cocoa

Mix two even tablespoonfuls of cocoa with two of sugar. Add 1-2 teaspoonful of salt. Mix gradually with two cups of boiling water. Stir to a smooth paste. Boil 5 minutes. Add two cups of scalded (not boiled) milk, and beat with an egg-beater until frothy.

Federal Government's Indifference Sidetracks Causeway Illumination Project

There is an air of insouciance about the way in which the federal government ignores requests which this city puts to it for help in schemes of improvement. It is seven months ago now since admirable plans for the permanent illumination of the Causeway were drawn up by Mr. Hutchison, the city electrician and published in these columns. It was felt by the various public bodies that such a scheme of artificial illumination would greatly enhance the beauty of the city, and attract more and more tourists to our gates. There was no time lost. The board of trade got to work, the city council took the matter up and everything looked "fair weather and a smiling sea." The consent and financial support of the C. P. R. was promised and obtained, the provincial government agreed to do their share in the scheme of lighting, and the G. T. P. also promptly intimated their interest and concern in the projected improvement.

It was decided that a good plan would be to have the illumination ready for the coming of the Governor-General, and leave the installation afterwards as a permanent asset to the beauty of the city by night. But nothing was done and the cause of the delay has been discovered. The federal government has declined to undertake the responsibility of lighting that part from the end of the post office building on Humboldt street as far as Government street. This necessarily had to be included in the scheme or else would be left a ridiculous gap in the ring of light around the harbor.

The exertions of the public bodies of the city, the skilful work of the electrician have been set at naught by this delay on the part of the federal authorities. No doubt public subscription might have been forthcoming for the completion of the scheme were it not for the fact that the consent of the government to the lighting of that particular piece of ground on which the post office stands had to be obtained before anything can be done in the matter. Up to the present this consent has not been forthcoming.

Meanwhile the citizens of Victoria are asking what is the delay, and inquiries are rife everywhere as to the nature of the obstacle which prevents the project from being carried out. The Dominion government alone can answer the question. That their consent and support has not already been given is due either to indifference or inadequate representation in the proper quarter.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB.

Interesting Session Held Last Evening—Resignation of the President.

At the regular gathering of the Victoria Progressive Club last night an interesting session was spent. That the club is becoming extensively known abroad was evidenced by several letters presented by the secretary from people as widely separated as California and Maine asking for copies of the Victoria booklet and other information respecting the city and surrounding country. These letters had all been answered by the secretary and the desired information given. Several new members were enrolled at the meeting and the membership canvassing committee reported good progress in the team contest to end next Thursday night.

Ex-Ald. Peden, who is treasurer of the club, introduced a very amusing feature into the meeting by stating that some interested parties were industriously circulating the report that the Progressive Club was a political organization and that it had been originated to offset the well-known Beaver Club organization in the city. Mr. Peden said he had vigorously contradicted the rumor as everyone connected with the Progressive Club knew that politics was the last thing its officers or members thought of. The president added that one political organization of the type of the Beaver Club was too many for the city. He was sure that none could more sincerely deprecate the introduction of party politics into civic affairs than the members of the Progressive Club. Instead of doubling the number of such organizations in the city the people ought to absolutely crush the one which already existed, a sentiment which was received with marked appreciation.

Arrangements were completed for the next monthly dinner to be held at the Weatherly Grill next Thursday night at 7.30. This will be a large gathering and at the function the addresses will be given by J. F. Lins and Ernest McGaffey on practical methods of attracting tourist traffic to the city.

Just before the adjournment of the meeting the president, Walter W. Baer, placed his resignation from the office of chairman in the hands of the secretary, giving as his reason for doing so his intention to early remove from the city. He assured the club of his deep interest in its welfare and expressed regret at the necessity of severing his connection with its work.

The resignation was regrettably accepted to take effect on November 21, and votes of thanks were passed expressing the appreciation of the club of the organization work which Mr. Baer had done. A motion was unanimously passed on the motion of Mr. Peden, and being seconded by Vice-President McLean, appointing Mr. Baer a life member of the club. For this invaluable testimonial of appreciation Mr. Baer returned his warm thanks.

MILKWEED AS FOOD.

One of the economic triumphs of the age is the utilization of waste material, and the use of weeds as food staples is a phase of this triumph, says Leslie's Weekly. The most interesting of these new "weed foods" is milkweed, the common wild variety that grows in every rocky pasture, in meadows and by roadsides. Its large, thick, smooth leaves are familiar to all, and its deep, dull pink tuft of flowers, and later its seed pods filled with delicate floss and flat brown seeds.

TWO MASS MEETINGS WILL FORM CLIMAX

World's Week of Prayer Closes on Sunday—Evangelistic Day Meetings

Great success has attended the observance of the world's week of prayer at the local Y. M. C. A. this week, and the instructors at the Blanchard street building confidently expect a great climax when the two great mass meetings—one for men and the other for boys—are held in the Metropolitan church and Y. M. C. A. gymnasium respectively on Sunday next.

To-day the last of the luncheon hour addresses was given, when Rev. W. L. Clay addressed a fair attendance of members on patriotism.

Each day of the week has been set apart as a special day for prayer on some topic or subject nearly affecting the interests of the association or the great world's work among the men and boys that they are doing day by day. To-morrow the special object will be "Immigration," and thanksgiving for the increased attention to the problems of immigration and for a growing interest in the immigrant.

Evangelistic Day will be celebrated most fittingly on Sunday by the two mass meetings above mentioned. The men's mass meeting is called for 4 p.m. in the Metropolitan Methodist church, while the mass meeting for boys will take place in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, commencing at the same hour.

The special speaker for the occasion at the church will be H. W. Stone, the well-known director of the Y. M. C. A. at Portland, Ore., while the boys' event will be addressed by F. G. Moran, boys' work director at Seattle.

MATHEMATICAL PRODIGY.

Child of Illiterate Parents Performs Wonders of Calculation.

A Tamil boy, aged 16, has for some time past been astonishing the inhabitants of India and Ceylon China by his wonderful calculating feats, and has now submitted to a test at the hands of the Ceylon branch of the Royal Asiatic Society at Colombo. He knows little English except the names of the numerals and mathematical expressions. He is abnormal not only in mind but also in body, for he has six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. His own account of himself is that his wonderful powers are the direct gift of the god Subramana, and he says that when he was eight years old he was taken to the Karthigay festival at Tiruparankundram and that in the night he dreamed that the god came to him and wrote the word "mathematics" on his tongue and that in the morning he had 12 fingers and 12 toes instead of the aforesaid 10. At the same time he found himself possessed suddenly of great calculating powers.

There can be no question as to the power he possesses, which is verified by both Indians and Europeans of repute. He is prepared to work any arithmetical problem, mentally, and up to the present time no problem, however difficult, has taken him longer than five seconds to work out.

Among some of the tests given him at two recent public demonstrations, all of which are answered correctly, were the square root of 553,776, the answer to which—724—was given in an instant; the cube root of 274,625—65—which was given just as quickly. When asked the product of 976 and 79 he immediately replied 77,104. He was then asked the result of 882,347 multiplied by 251, and in about two seconds came the answer, 226,522,175. In the case of one sum set him, the examiner had the wrong answer set down in writing, but the correct answer was given by the boy. Problems in compound interest, discount, exchange, and other arithmetical rules were set him, but he answered all tests correctly, using only mental calculations, and in considerably less time than the problems could have been worked out on paper. The boy, whose name is Arumogan, comes of a working-class family, and is quite illiterate.

PAT'S DILEMMA.

Patrick Murphy was a new recruit, and the first day of Parade he mustered up along with a batch of other recruits to do drill. "Attention!" thundered the sergeant. "Shoulder arms! Right about turn!" The whole lot of men had performed their drill satisfactorily with the exception of Pat, who had not moved a muscle. The sergeant was mad with rage, and going up to Pat caught him by the neck and shook him, asking if he was deaf. "No, sir," answered Pat. "Then why the dickens didn't you turn when I shouted 'right about turn'?" "Please, sir, I'm frightened."

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

To the Editor:—On Sunday evening last I was walking along the lower end of Johnson street, between Government and Store streets, when I stopped to listen to the Salvation Army. I had been standing but a few moments when the Army commenced to move away, but the crowd still lingered as if expecting something. At this moment a respectfully dressed individual stepped out into the street and started to address those present. His first words were: "Fellow workers, please step off the sidewalk and leave lots of room for the people passing up and down." At this moment a busy policeman stepped up to the speaker, tapped him on the shoulder and made the following remark: "Hi, there, you can't talk on this street, so get a move on." To cut a long story short, the speaker did as he was requested, but the question is why this discrimination and who is responsible? Certainly not the policeman, for he is but the servant of those higher up. It would appear that some would-be autocrat or autocrats had issued the following proclamation: "We believe that the citizens of Victoria have not sufficient intelligence to listen to different views and subjects which may be expounded upon our streets and to choose for themselves which to believe in and which not to believe, therefore we have given orders to the police to stop all such street meetings which do not agree with our personal views." (Signed)

Will someone tell us what name or names should be signed to this, so that intelligent free speech, loving electors will know how to mark their ballots next January.

FREE SPEECH.

SPRAYING FRUIT TREES.

To the Editor:—Re the article on the above subject by Observer in reply to mine of 12th instant, I should like, with your permission, to reply seriatim to him.

1. He refers to a letter of mine some time ago, wherein I gave an extract from the Pacific Monthly of October, 1910, which proved that all the resources of science and chemistry in the shape of spraying failed to kill a small insect infesting the oranges, except when they killed the tree. This is fact, not theory.

2. My opinion he thinks has not sufficient weight. Allow me to say that in Britain the best men in it have found my weight too great for them as a rose grower, and I never sprayed them either. In 1886, at Newcastle, in England, and in Helensburgh, in Scotland, on 8th and 9th July, for eleven entries I took eleven first prizes, the crack growers of England, Scotland and Ireland getting the seconds and thirds.

3. While oil, one fool man possibly Observer's friend, sprayed it on the leaves of his apples, and of course choked the pores of the leaves, just as so many of the sprays do, but applied to the bark in winter it is the best thing ever used in this island for the apple.

4. Legumes and nitrogen. Plenty of people plough these in as green manure, the value of which, or rather the lack, was proved in Britain over 100 years ago, the conclusion being that it was not worth the cost. But if "Observer" can point to any party who has done as I did, I shall be glad to hear of it.

Now for some proofs that I am right, which must be brief. Being at Portadown, Ireland, once, I saw a nurseryman spraying potatoes with Bordeaux mixture. I asked if he thought he was doing any good. He said he had done it for nine years, but had never thought it was any use. I asked him why he did it then. He said people said it was good, and so he did it, and was to try it on some cabbage. This experiment ended in his being prosecuted for poisoning people. "Observer" ought to know, if he does not, that some of the sprays poison the soil, rendering it infertile.

Last year, near Mount Tolmie, I saw the government gasoline spraying outfit working on an orchard. Up to now I have not seen the slightest good. They only wasted the rancher's money. I told a large fruit grower, who was a believer in spraying, where the gasoline outfit was, and said he should get it. His reply was that he would not let it in his place, but would spray himself, which he did, spending three weeks at it with a pair of horses, three men and a lot of spray. After he had finished I told him that he wasted his time, and had done no harm to the apple, or the woolly aphis, which he admitted, but from the appearance of the trees this year, especially the plums, I see they are much damaged. Along Quadra street this year, notwithstanding the spraying, many of the fruit trees were a disgust to see even in well tended orchards, as far as keeping fairly clean was concerned, even autoists commenting on the clouds of woolly aphis and the millions of aphids, the honey dew from which choked the pores of every leaf.

They have been spraying a long time in Canada. Now can "Observer" point to a single clean orchard from the Atlantic to the Pacific? Last year a company of Britishers spent a few months in looking for such a thing, but failed, the cleanest they had found, they said, being one near Royal Oak, which I know is not clean. I have asked the government for the last two years now to start a small experimental orchard on the spraying, and the non-spraying system, and note results I shall be glad if the government does so, if they put "Observer" on the one to manage, and myself on the other. But if "Observer" thinks he is not the best man in Canada, then find that man. This experiment would result in saving millions to the ranchers, and a dead loss to the purveyors of sprays.

Appointments to Commissions Not Yet Made—Gazette Announcements.

It is now fairly certain that the appointments to the labor and agricultural commissions will not be announced until the return of the premier, Sir Richard S. Manning-Bell, by way of the States and will be here in the course of a week or more, and then, doubtless, the names of the appointees will be made known. The week's appointments in the British Columbia Gazette are:

William Allison, of Hazelton, to be a coroner for the province of British Columbia.

Herbert R. Townsend, of the City of Rossland, to be official administrator for that portion of the County of Kootenay embraced in the Rossland City Electoral District and the City of Trail, in the place of C. R. Hamilton, resigned.

Charles Hornsby Smith to be a deputy mining recorder for the Stikine and Liard River Mining Divisions, with sub-recording office at Porter's Landing, Dease Lake.

William Simpson, of Clayoquot, to be acting mining recorder for the Clayoquot Mining Division during the absence from the said office of Walter Dwyer, Mining Recorder.

Alexander Macneil, of the City of Fernie, barrister-at-law, to be a commissioner for taking affidavits within the Province of British Columbia.

Clyde Harvey Dunbar, of the City of Kamloops, to act as Deputy District Registrar of Titles for the Yale Land Registration District from the 6th day of November, 1912.

H. Meadows, M. D., C. M., to be Resident Physician for Denman and Hornby Islands from the 1st day of November, 1912.

MODE FASHION AND HER TRIBUTE

KILLING OF HERONS FOR HAT AIGRETTES

Referred to at Annual Meeting of S. P. C. A. Last Evening—Election of Officers

The annual meeting of the S. P. C. A. was held last evening in the city hall, Rev. E. G. Miller occupying the chair until after the election of president. The following officers were appointed: President, Capt. Dallain; vice-president, Mr. Justice Martin; counsel, J. Lindley Crease; secretary, T. W. Palmer; treasurer, Dr. D. B. Holden; auditor, W. Curtis Sampson; committee, Rev. Baugh Allan, Rev. E. G. Miller, Dr. Home, Mr. Burgess and Mr. Cameron.

The president's report gave an account of the work which had been done by the society during the past year, and showed that, while the work of the society was yearly becoming more important, the balance had also considerably increased over previous years, and now stood at $488.35. The total number of cases dealt with by the inspector had been 248 against 171 the year previously. This was not one of the things in which an increase was wanted, and one of the hoped for benefits to be derived from the introduction of this automobile was that it might save the horses. Fourteen prosecutions had been brought before the magistrate on charges of cruelty, in twelve of which convictions had been secured. The committee had referred to the barbarous practice of destroying the white heron in order to provide aigrettes for women's hats. Some measure ought to be taken to induce women to stop a fashion which resulted in so barbarous a cruelty. Several of the American states had prohibited the killing of the herons, but fashion continued to demand the sacrifice, and the practice was still carried on.

This point was provocative of some discussion, Mr. McGaffey maintaining that it was not so much because fashion demanded as because men were necessary that the birds were killed. "There would be no aigrette plumes if he men did not go out to kill the birds or the sake of the money that is in it," he said. "Stop the plume hunters; here is too much tendency to lay the blame on the ladies; in the last analyses it will be found that somewhere behind will be found men wherever there is a cruelty done." Mr. McGaffey paid a tribute to man's faithful servant, the horse, and his devoted friend, the dog, and that poisoning a dog or abusing a horse were but the actions of tyrants. The speaker also paid a compliment to the prudence of the prosecutor, who had not let his zeal outrun his discretion—which might be seen from the success of the prosecutions.

Mr. Burgess suggested that books should be placed in the library so that children might absorb in their reading some of the principles of the Band of Mercy work.

On the motion of A. J. Dallain, the report of the Women's Auxiliary of the S. P. C. A. was adopted. Mr. Palmer announcing that they had recently passed a resolution guaranteeing $200 in the forthcoming year to the funds of the parent society, this being $40 in excess of the amount which they had given this year, viz., $160. Both the president and secretary spoke of the good work which had been done by the ladies, and thanked them for their assistance, and on the motion of Mr. Burgess, seconded by Mr. Dallain, it was decided that the matter of the education of the children, Bands of Mercy, etc., should be left to the Women's Auxiliary to deal with.

A number of motions of thanks were passed, one to C. L. Harrison for the manner in which he had conducted cases for the society, being accorded 4th great heartiness. Rev. W. Baugh Allan moved a vote of thanks to the press for their co-operation in giving publicity to cases of cruelty to animals, this also being passed. On the motion of Mrs. Toller a vote of thanks to Rev. E. G. Miller, who had taken the office of chairman for the greater part of the proceedings, was given; another motion of the same character thanking the police for their aid to the society during the year being passed on the motion of Rev. Mr. Miller, the thanks of the society to the officers and inspectors having been passed previously.

It was announced with reference to the absence of Inspector Russell from the city that his son, who was present, would undertake the work during his father's absence, and might be found by phoning to the usual number.

GET IN BEFORE THE CARLINE

"Collingwood"

Values will increase before very long, especially as the new Saanich carline will be in operation right past the property in less than a month.

Reader, why don't you be square with yourself? Why don't you take advantage of our invitation and come and see "Collingwood" to-day? If you have not seen it you have not given yourself and your family a square deal. This may be the very place where you should buy. You cannot decide by hearsay or by looking at a map. You can only decide, fairly and squarely, by seeing the property for yourself. If you see it and decide that it does not interest you, well and good. We shall respect your judgment. But you should see it with your own eyes, and you should see it right away.

"Collingwood" is the kind of property that offers a moderate income, a sterling opportunity to net good profits without more than ordinary risk.

There is no better suburban property than "COLLINGWOOD." Look over the entire field and you will come back to this splendid subdivision because "COLLINGWOOD" is located in the very path of progressive developments and within the next few years this entire district will be admittedly one of Victoria's leading residential centres.

Read the "REASONS WHY"

MISS ANDERSON HUGHES

World's Missioner of W. C. T. U.
Arrived Here To-day.

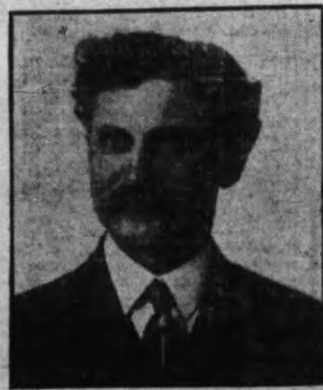

The W. C. T. U. met yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. parlor to make final arrangements in connection with the visit of Miss Anderson Hughes, world's missioner of the W. C. T. U., who arrived this afternoon from Vancouver, and went directly to the residence of Mrs. Frank Andrews, who will be her hostess during her stay here.

At yesterday's meeting a full programme was drawn up of the meetings which were to be held during Miss Hughes' visit here. This afternoon a reception is being held for her at the residence of Mrs. J. G. Brown, Fernwood road and Fort street. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Williscroft will entertain at her residence on behalf of the Young People's branch of the society, when it is hoped that all the young people of the city who are interested will rally together to meet Miss Hughes. The vocalists at this rally will be Miss Lulu Scott, Miss Ada Ede, Mrs. Keyworth, and Miss Morrison. Tomorrow evening it is anticipated that Miss Hughes will give an address at the Men's mission, Store street. On Sunday addresses will be given in the Congregational church in the morning, at the Crystal theatre in the afternoon, and in the evening at Emmanuel Baptist church. On Monday afternoon an address will be given at the Congregational church, and in the evening at 8 o'clock in the Metropolitan Methodist church, when a short programme of songs and recitations will be given by Mr. Parsons, Mrs. Parsons, and Miss Sherriff.

On Tuesday afternoon another meeting will be held in the Congregational church, the most important address

C. E. HEARD, Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. Heard comes to this city under the auspices of the local branch of the International Bible Students' Association. He is a very able exponent of the Scriptures, and a regular speaker in Vancouver to large and appreciative audiences of Bible students. This question of the success or failure of the Gospel is one of most vital interest to every Christian in our day when infidelity is so prevalent. Let nothing prevent your listening to this most important address.

during her visit having been reserved for Tuesday evening, when she will give a stereopticon lecture on "Egypt and Palestine."

SURELY TAKE "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

Sweetens your stomach, clears your head and thoroughly cleanses your liver and 30 feet of bowels of sour bile, foul gases and clogged-up waste.

All those days when you feel miserable, headachy, bilious and dull are due to torpid liver and sluggish bowels. The days when your stomach is sour and full of gas, when you have indigestion; the nights when your nerves twitch and you are restless and can't sleep could be avoided with a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs.
Isn't it foolish to be distressed when there is such a pleasant way to overcome it?

Give your inactive liver and ten yards of waste-clogged bowels a thorough cleansing this time. Put an end to constipation.

Take a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs to-night, sure, and just see for yourself by morning, how gently but thoroughly all the sour bile, undigested fermenting food and clogged up waste matter is moved on and out of your system—no nausea—no griping—no weakness.

You simply can't have your liver inactive and your thirty feet of bowels constipated with sour, decaying waste matter and feel well. The need of a laxative is a natural need, but with delicious Syrup of Figs you are not drugging yourself. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot injure.

Ask your druggist for the full name,
"Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna."
Refuse, with scorn, any of the so-called Fig-Syrup imitations. They are meant to deceive you! Look on the label. The genuine, old reliable, bears the name,
California Fig Syrup Company.

STOCKS STEADYING UP ON NEW YORK 'CHANGE

Effect on Market of Price of Sterling Exchange—Tone
Improving

New York, Nov. 15.—Sentiment has been somewhat improved owing to the cheerful tenor of advices from the other side. The copper was conspicuous for their steadiness, as also steel and some of the other high-priced ralls seemingly were being supplied on the upturns under cover of the strength in the low priced issues. The fact that sterling exchange is now at a level, which is generally considered a profitable gold importing basis, and the fact that there are not as yet any indications of yellow metal coming this direction, is suggestive of the fact that international markets have not as yet recovered their equilibrium, and that monetary conditions, both domestic and foreign, are still as much of a factor as ever in the sense that the same exert a restraining influence.

EX-MAYOR MORLEY IN THE FIELD

Ex-Mayor A. J. Morley has acceded to a request from a number of citizens, and will be a candidate for the mayoralty in 1913. In a lengthy document setting out his views on public questions he has replied to the deputation which asked him to stand. He says that if his services can be of any assistance in cleaning up municipal affairs he will place himself in their hands for nomination. If his attitude to the vital issues of the city meets with the approval of the members of the deputation he will be prepared to stand accordingly for what office they desire. The Times was informed this afternoon that the views set forth in the document are acceptable to the members of the deputation, and it may be taken therefore that Mr. Morley will run again.

VANCOUVER AND PANAMA CANAL

PREPARING THE WAY FOR TRADE DEVELOPMENT

Company Formed to Make Business Connections With Foreign Houses

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—So greatly are the business men of Vancouver impressed with the trade possibilities inherent in the future when the Panama Canal is in use, that a number of them have formed themselves into a company which is to be known as the Amalgamated Trust & Trading Company, Ltd., of Vancouver.

Under their charter the company will undertake the general business of a trust company, and will operate a savings bank department. In addition the company intends to establish a handling of Oriental settlements, which is confidently anticipated to prove highly lucrative.

But the great aim of the organization is an entirely new departure in the commercial history of the city—a mercantile brokerage department—which will be solely devoted to acting as buying and selling agents for their principals in the East and elsewhere.

The Amalgamated Trust & Trading Company have already secured a number of agencies with merchants in eastern Canada for the export of their merchandise from the port of Vancouver. The company will also make arrangements with foreign merchants to act as their agents in Vancouver for the sale of their products, and, as necessary.

city arises, will establish branch offices in every leading commercial centre, for the furtherance of the objects of the company.

At present a special trade agreement is in force between Canada and the West Indies, and negotiations are proceeding between the Dominion government and the Commonwealth of Australia for a similar compact. Moreover, the trade of Vancouver with the Orient and the rest of the world will be greatly augmented by the opening of the Panama Canal, and the officers of the company rightly believe that the best way to get their share of the large future trade of the port and city of Vancouver is to be there, ready and prepared for its arrival, and with their organization in the best possible condition to capture and handle it upon its arrival.

Colonel Duff Stuart is president of the new company. The first and second vice-presidents are Thomas F. Paterson and Matthew J. Barry, respectively; the managing director is Alfred Jessiman, the secretary is W. B. Stone, and the other directors are G. M. Endacott, Dr. P. P. Paterson and W. Innes Paterson.

Mrs. H. Farr, of Vancouver, is the guest of Alderman and Mrs. Gleason, at "Bonita," 1900 Belmont avenue, and will receive with Mrs. Gleason this evening from 5 to 10 p.m., and to-morrow afternoon from 3 to 6 p.m.

IS A PROMINENT CONGREGATIONALIST

REV. J. W. PEDLEY AND
HIS EARLY STRUGGLE

Started Church in Vancouver
Twenty-One Years Ago—
Growth of the West

Rev. J. W. Pedley, of Toronto, who has been visiting the city, is one of the Giants of the Congregational church in Canada. In conversation with a representative of the Times yesterday he gave an interesting account of the beginning and growth of Congregationalism in the West. It was in Vancouver just about twenty-one years ago that, as he picturesquely describes it, he "rang out his shingle," inviting anyone with Congregational leanings to call upon him. It was not long until he had a very enthusiastic little gathering of people around him, and the room which he had taken to hold the meetings in grew too small, a hall being taken shortly after and rented for a small sum. Then the church was organized, thirty-two charter members being on the roll, and out of the heterogeneous elements of the rambling, straggling, unbeautiful Vancouver of the day rallied week after week an intensely interested and inspiring congregation. "Wilson Hill became a great centre of religious activity while I was there," said the speaker, "and in 1891, after two years' work with continuous success, we moved into the new church on Richmond and Georgia. Six years later I went East, after seeing the work thoroughly well organized, and for seventeen years carried on the pastorate of the Western Congregational church, one of the three Congregational churches in Toronto. In 1908 I went away to Europe in search of health and rest, and spent a most delightful year visiting the universities of England and Scotland, and traveling about the Continent. It was a wonderful tour, and gave me plenty of good spiritual and intellectual stimulus. Last Saturday I arrived in Vancouver to open the new Congregational church there—an honor which was given me in recognition, I suppose, of the part I had taken in organizing the original church many years ago."

In commenting on the nature of the growth in the new cities of the West, Mr. Pedley spoke with the optimism which characterizes his entire outlook. "Like it, why, I think it is wonderful, although I must add, in all seriousness, that the enormous fortunes that many are making here are nothing more nor less than the result of very fortunate gambling. I met a bricklayer not long ago who has made a big pile, and has purchased all the modern luxuries from a motor car and chauffeur in buttons to a fine mansion of a place, and he is now off in Scotland with his family—probably honking along the road somewhere to a little drab cottage where he and generations of his peasant ancestors before him were born. Yes, it is just a gamble."

Comparing the educational spirit of Canada with that of the older countries, Mr. Pedley was prepared with nothing but praise for the former, although he considered that, while possessing a very high order of intelligence and applicability, the urgent life, the keen competition of numbers, and the actual shortage of natural products, had compelled the people of the older countries to study the conditions of the community in which they live, and they, in consequence, showed a far more profound knowledge of the basic principles of existence than the average worker in this country. They have to be interested in political problems, they have to be interested in social and religious questions, because all these things vitally affect them. Personally, he was a pronounced radical, a radical in politics, a radical in religion; a believer in Christian socialism and the upheaval of all antiquated forms. The present social system was based on the same principle as a pyramid standing on its apex instead of its base. Government of the people, for the people, and by the people was the only form of government to his mind, and "Jack's as good as his master, if he is as good," he added, following the comment by paying a high tribute of praise to Keir Hardie and John Burns—both self-made men who had sat side by side with the hereditary leaders in the House.

Rev. Mr. Pedley says that he still clings to the Puritan idea that people should go to church for inspiration, instruction and vision, rather than for a weekly session of prayer, and that it was the minister's office to give those things. After his sermon last evening he left for Vancouver, where he will preach next Sunday again before returning to his home in Toronto.

MUNICIPAL LAW AMENDMENTS

Some of Union's Suggestions Especially Important to Victoria

Some of the resolutions which were adopted by the B. C. Union of Municipalities and laid before the municipal commission on Wednesday for consideration in the preparation of their report are of considerable interest to the city, as bearing directly upon the problems of to-day in the municipal life of this city.

Mayor Beckwith represented the city when they were drafted, and in the person of F. A. McDiarmid, the former city solicitor, and now solicitor to the union, the city government has another representative in close touch with the local situation.

The resolutions include clauses covering agreements of sale, payment of mayors, operating swimming baths and telephones, local improvement simplification, church exemption from taxation, commission form of government, franchisees for motor omnibuses and street building lines.

Among those of special interest to Victoria are:

That municipalities be divided into three classes, cities of 20,000 population or over, cities of 10,000 and under 20,000, and district municipalities.

That salaries for mayors and Reeves be as follows: For cities of 20,000 or more population, not exceeding $4,000; of from 10,000 to 20,000, not more than $2,000; of from 5,000 to 10,000, not exceeding $1,000, and under 5,000, not to exceed $500. The population is to be determined by the councils taking a census.

That the last registered owner of an agreement for sale, with at least 25 per cent. assessable interest in the property, shall be placed on the voters' list in substitution for the owner in fee.

That a municipality be given power to own and operate telephone systems and construct and maintain swimming baths.

That the "commission form of government" be adopted in any municipality on a sufficient vote of the people.

A complete outline of an enactment covering the procedure for local improvements was submitted, doing away with the advertising of the work and instead of notifying each land owner by registered mail.

That it is the opinion of the union that no lands should be exempted from taxation.

That powers be given municipalities to govern pool rooms, billiard rooms, skating rinks, dance halls, moving picture shows, theatres and all other places of public amusement, with powers to prohibit them in certain set sections of the municipality, and to refuse licenses if the applicant is deemed unfit.

That municipalities be granted power to own and operate or grant franchises for the maintenance of motor omnibuses, trolley lines, etc., within their corporate limits.

That power be given municipalities to establish building lines on certain streets and enforce compliance, subject to an appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.
